In a few More Years

A discriminating public will insist that no other remedy for burns and scalds shall be used, and why should not this be universal at once, as many valuable lives would be saved through its agency, for it is a positive fact that Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor relieves the agony in a few moments and cures without scar. One trial will convince the most skeptical. Sold in Pittsburgh, at Fleming's Drug Store, No. 84 Market Street.

Widely Known.

It is generally supposed that the Websters, Palmerstons, Gortaschoffs, Metternichs, and Garribaldis of politics are the men of world-wide renown, and so they are where newspapers circulate, but not much beyond. One of our friends lately returned from China, amuses us with the recital of his journey inland for some distance, where the enquiry oftenest made when he became known as an American, was whether he knew or had ever seen the great chemist of his country, Dr. Ayer, that made the medicines. They use his remedies—many of them had been cured by them—and they speak of him as if he occupied the whole of America or were at least the great feature of it. A mandarin who had been cured of a malignant ulcer on the hip by his Sarsaparilla, seemed to consider it our principle article of export, and its inventor one of the few men this continent had ever produced worthy the attention of Cinamen.—New York News.

Is Health Worth Having?

If it is, protect it. It is a jewel as easily lost as virtue, and in some cases as difficult to recover. Nature, in our climate, and especially at this season, requires to be occasionally reinforced. But everything depends upon the tonic used for this purpose. The medicinal tinctures, all of which are based on common alcohol, are dangerous. Quinine, as everybody finds out who takes much of it, is a slow poison. One safe protective from all unhealthy atmospheric influences exists, and one only. This powerful preventive is Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, a compound of the purest stimulants ever manufactured, with the most effective tonics, alteratives, regulators and depurators that chemistry has yet extracted from the botanical kingdom. Convalescents, languid and feeble from recent sickness, will find the Bitters an incomparable Restorative, not disagreeble to the taste, and eminently invigorating. No other stimulant produces the same effect as this Stomachic. It does not excite or flutter the nerves, or occasion any undue arterial action, but at once soothes and strengthens the nervous system and the animal spirits.

Hostetter's Bitters

Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 84 Market street, corner of the Diamond, near Fourth street.

The Necessity of Protection.

EDITORS PITTSBURGH GAZETTE:—I enclose you an article clipped from the Troy Daily Times, with the request that the same may be inserted in the columns of your valuable paper, that the laboring and industrial classes of this country may see the difference paid for labor in this and the old country; showing the necessity of an early revision of our revenue laws; that labor may be protected, and a home market for the farm products of the country, preserved; our vast mineral wealth rapidly developed, and our manufacturing, mechanical, agricultural and industrial interests fostered and protected; that our law makers at Washington, may realize the necessity of protecting the labor of this country against that of other countries; and a market for our agricultural productions be found at our own doors. The iron interest is one of the leading interests of our city. What it has done for us is but a small matter of what it will do, in the future, if properly protected.

I am not prepared or qualified, to make an estimate of the cost of producing iron in this market, but infer it is greater, in some respects, here than in Troy, as all branches of skilled labor are higher west of the mountains than east; and that, were it not for the hope of there being some prompt action by Congress, many of our large manufacturing establishments would cease until there would be a reduction in labor that would give them some margin for profit; as it is now asserted by many, there is none, but in many descriptions of iron, a loss. The statements of R. B., will give the manufacturers and all interested, west of the mountains, an opportunity of comparing cost, and warn the country that if foreign importations are to continue, and take our market from our own people, our manufacturers must cease to produce, and lie idle until such time as labor can be brought down to the same wages paid in other countries. Then we may prepare for distress and suffering throughout the land, such as the country has never passed through. But, on the other hand, if the machinery of the industrial interests of the country is protected against foreign manufactures, we shall go on our way prospering, and rejoicing that our country appreciates and is always ready to protect all classes of industry.
A LABORING MAN.

Having had some experience in the working of the Internal Revenue laws since their first imposition, upon the iron manufacturers of this city, I have ventured to submit to you such a brief outline of their operation, in connection with the tariff on foreign iron, as, in the absence of a more extensive survey, may call public attention to the subject, and ultimately lead to such modifications as the wisdom of our legislators may devise and the interests of our workmen and manufacturers demand.

Let it be understood that I am no advocate for the removal from the shoulders of the iron trade a just proportion of the burden, which a war of such magnitude as the one we have just ended has laid upon our country, but I must protest against such a proportion as shall depress our home manufacturing interests, keep our valuable minerals buried in their native hills, and enrich the foreign manufacturer at our expense.

It is only a few days since I saw a letter which said that the agent of a British manufacturer had taken orders in this country for the entire production of one of the largest mills, for the next six months.

Every week's statement of imports contains a large amount of railroad and merchant iron—and as the result of this we have the satisfaction of knowing that for nearly three months of this year, all our rolling mills have been idle, and for at least six months about two-thirds of the furnaces of the entire country out of blast. When gold was at a premium of between 150 and 190, the cost of manufacture in the items of coal, ore, wages, &c., was no more than it is at present, with gold at 45 per cent. premium. The former rate was a barrier to excessive importation, and amounted to a protective tariff on our own manufactures. It is not difficult to perceive that if gold should continue its downward course, without affecting the value of commodities, and consequently, cost of production, the advantage is all in favor of the foreign manufacturer, and we must prepare for such a commercial crisis and revulsion as this country has never experienced.

Let us examine the increased price paid by the iron manufacturer for his stock, &c., since the war. The cost of construction and repairs—a very large item in iron works—is at least doubled: Pig iron was $20 per ton—is now $45—increase, 126 per cent.; coal was $4 per ton—is now $12—increase, 200 per cent.; ore was $3.50 per ton—is now $6.50—increase, 85 per cent.; labor was $12 per ton—is now $21—increase 75 per cent. The price of manufactured iron averaged, at the former period, from $55 to $30 per ton to the trade; during the last few months, the price has been from $85 to $115 per ton, and, as is usual in rising markets, more contracts have been made under than over $100 per ton.

The cost of a ton (2240 pounds) of wrought iron, before the war is about as follows:

24 cwt. Pig Iron at $20 per ton	$24 00
5 cwt. Ore at $3.50 per ton	88
32 cwt. Coal at $4.00 per ton	6 40
Labor	12 00
Castings, Fire, Brick, use of Machinery, &c.	5 00
Total cost one ton iron, 1860-61	$48 28
The cost now is:
24 cwt. Pig Iron at $45 per ton	$54 00
5 cwt. Ore at $6 50 per ton	1 63
32 cwt. Coal at $12 per ton	19 20
Labor	21 00
Castings, Fire Brick, use of Machinery, &c.	10 00
Internal Revenue Tax at $3.60 on 2000 lbs. is on 2240 lbs.	4 03
Total cost of one ton iron, Nov. 1865	$109 86

From these figures, which are substantially correct, as any manufacturer of merchant iron or railroad bars will testify, no further proof is necessary, that our manufacturers are not adding heavily to their income tax this year. Some, whose mills have been running at a loss for the last three months, will be glad if both ends meet this year. Others are only saved from loss by having purchased their stock when the market was easier.

The revenue tax on iron is as follows: Pig iron, $2.40 per ton, or five per cent. ad valorem; castings, $3.60 per ton, or twelve per cent. ad valorem; railroad bars $3.60 per ton or six per cent. ad valorem; merchant bars $3.60 per ton, or six per cent. ad valorem; rivets, bolts, cut nails and spikes, $2.40 per ton, or seven per cent. ad valorem; wrought spikes and railroad chairs $6 per ton, or twelve per cent. ad valorem. The ton is two thousand pounds. Unenumerated articles, six per cent. ad valorem. Explanatory of the above, let it be understood by those unacquainted with paying taxes on manufactures, that in the rate per cent. is included the entire tax paid by the articles in question. Thus, castings are taxed $3.60 and pig iron $2.40, therefore, castings pay $6 per ton; merchant and railroad bars pay $3.60, made from 24 cwt. pig iron that has paid $3 tax—they therefore are taxed $6.60 per ton. Rivets, &c., are made from merchant iron that has paid $6.60 per ton, to which add $2.40 per ton, and you have $9 per ton tax. Railroad spikes and chairs are made from bars that have paid $6.60 tax; to this is added $6, equal to $12.60 per ton. This last item of the revenue law is clearly a blunder, and a fraud on the manufacturer. It is arranged in the act that when rivets, cut nails and cut spikes, &c., are made from wrought iron that has paid the tax, only $2.40 per ton additional shall be paid, but in this arrangement, by some means, (most probably an oversight) the important items, wrought spikes and railroad chairs, were not included.

Our legislators may have thought that the discretionary powers left in the hands of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue would be excercised in accordance with the spirit and intent of the law, but his first and almost only idea seems to have been to secure to the Treasury the largest possible amount in spite of remonstrances, petitions and complaints from those who felt that they were paying thousands of dollars annually, because of the omission of two or three words, which, had they occurred to the minds of our law makers, would undoubtedly have been inserted in the act.

The tax continues to follow the iron after it leaves the manufacturer. If converted into steel, it pays $6, $12 or $15 per ton, according to value. If again rolled or hammered into any other shape, six per cent. on the added value; or, if said iron or steel is used in the construction of a locomotive or marine engine, six per cent. on the entire value is again assessed. Thus—

> "The tax,
> Like a staunch murderer, steady to his purpose,
> Pursues it close through every transformation,
> Nor misses once the track."

until, if we were to catch one of the flying parts of a burst up piece of machinery and ask it how much it had paid in proportion to its value, it might answer twenty-five, fifty or one hundred per cent.

When the war was in progress and gold advancing until it reached nearly two hundred per cent. premium, with large demands for all kinds of iron, it was known that our manufacturers were making money rapidly, and they might then have been thought fit subjects to be plundered; but now, with the rate of exchange permitting the importation of foreign iron, at a price at which the home manufacture cannot be made, the case is reversed, Where, then, is the remedy?

First.—Let us ask our legislators in the approaching session of Congress to reconsider the tax on iron and make such an abatement as may enable the manufacturer to meet the altered condition in which he is placed. If the writer, who is not a manufacturer, and therefore considers himself a somewhat disinterested party, may be allowed to offer a suggestion, he would say that a uniform tax of one to two and a half per cent would yield a large revenue, and would be as much as the material would stand under ordinary circumstances. Iron is one of those commodities which owe their value almost entirely to labor. Every ton represents so many days' work, and so much money earned and expended in the sustenance of the laborer and his family. On what they eat and wear, a by no means inconsiderable tax has been paid. A Mr. Morrell, of Pennsylvania, has estimated the indirect tax on a ton of iron equal to $5 83 paid by the laborer. It would, therefore, be good policy in our rulers to foster the iron trade as a means by which the interest and principal of our indebtedness may be discharged

It is also necessary that the tax on steel should be remodeled. This article is now being made by processes that will lead to its extensive use for rails, axles, boiler plate, locomotive tires, etc., if the rate of tax is altered so as to permit its sale at an equivalent advance over the price of iron. The present tax amounting to a total of one cent per pound is almost prohibitory to its general use on a large scale. Let the same rate of 1 to 2½ per cent. be charged on steel as on iron, and we predict for this article next year a revenue that will astonish the officials who misapprehend the necessity for the change.

Second—Let us ask our legislators to increase the tariff on imported iron to one hundred per cent The tariff is now one cent per pound on merchant bars, and one half cent on railroad bars, and we will proceed to show that the foreign articles can be imported to compete with the home manufacture with this duty added. Your mechanic will tell you the quality of the imported is not as good as the American iron, but the merchant looks to profit, and will sell that which pays best. The almost total cost of iron is labor, and that we all know is not so liberally paid anywhere as in this country. If therefore our laborer is not protected against the labor of men who do not live nearly so well—who remain in the same station in which they were born, their whole lives—we must give up manufacturing altogether—shut up all our hidden mines of wealth—and turn our sole attention to growing food, for the ill-paid, ill-clad and badly sheltered millions of Europe. Are we prepared to do this? No. A thousand times No. Those gentlemen from Great Britain who lately visited our shores, examined our railroads, explored our oil wells, coal mines and ore beds, and were feted by Railroad Directors and others to such an extent, would fain persuade us that free trade is the panacea for all ills, the high road to all prosperity,—the golden chain that binds the entire human family in one harmonious whole. To such like sophistry there should be from the laboring population of this country but one answer—We don't see it!

Below is a statement of the cost of a ton of merchant bars in England, taken from one of their latest writers on the manufacture of iron, which you will see is a little below £5.10s. sterling:

BOILING GREY PIG IRON.
22¼ cwts. grey forge pig iron, at 60s. per ton	£3 6 9
Wages, puddling, from 8s.6d. to 10s.6d.	9 6
Coal, twenty cwt	6 0
Wages, shingling and rolling	2 8
Power and machinery	3 0
Laborer, weighing and breaking metal, removing ashes, &c	10
Cost of a ton No. 1 mill bar	£4 8 9
FINISHED BAR.
21¼ cwt. No. 1 mill bar, at 88s. 9d. per ton	£4 15 5
Wages, heating, rolling, &c	9 3
Coal, 10 to 12 cwt	2 0
Laborers	8
Cost of a ton of finished bar	£5 9 10

Requiring 22-25 cwt. of pig iron to a ton of puddled bar, or 23-91 cwt. pig iron to one of finished bar, it is probable that the cost is now some ten or fifteen per cent. more than the above specification, which was made in 1857, but this is the latest estimate to which the writer has access. He can, however, give the cost of bar iron in Liverpool, and the cost of importing, which will answer all the purpose of his argument, which cost is from £8 to £9 sterling. We will take the average £8 10s.

One ton bar iron in Liverpool	£8 10 0
Shipping	2 1
Freight, (has been lower,)	17 6
	£9 10 0
£9.10s at 9 per cent. for exchange	$46 62
Customs	22 40
In gold	68 42
At 47c premium	$100 50

The above table shows, taken in connection with the previous estimate of cost of American iron, that English iron can be imported at ten dollars less per ton than American can be manufactured. Should we apply a similar analysis to the importation of foreign and the manufacture of American railroad bars, the result would show a still more striking difference—equal to from $20 to $25 per ton in favor of imported bars.

On behalf of the American laborer and manufacturer, on whom the country depend for their support and the payment of our national indebtedness, we call upon the approaching Congress to make such a tariff. It will protect their interests, enable the laborer to provide for himself and those dependent upon him at the increased cost of living which at present prevails, give the manufacturer a reasonable profit on his investment, and encourage him to devote his wealth to the opening up of new sources of prosperity to the country we love.

FRAUD ON THE N. Y. POLICE COMMISSIONERS.

Trial of the Spanish Murderers.

FEMALE STREET WALKERS ARRESTED.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—A fraud on the Police Commissioners was brought to light yesterday in the arrest of one of the attaches of the Chief Clerk's office, who it is alleged has been selling appointments on the force for sums varying in amount from $50 to $250 in each case. The extent of the fraud has not been definitely ascertained, but the Commissioners are investigating it. It is stated that five of these bogus appointments has thus far been discounted.

The trial of the two Spaniards, Gonzoles and Hellecier, who were indicted for the murder of Senor Ato in the Brooklyn City Park, will commence at ten o'clock this morning in the King county Court of Oyer and Terminer, before Judge Gilbert.

By a concerted movement, the police on Saturday night arrested between thirty and forty of the female street walkers of the fifteenth precinct, who were yesterday arraigned in Jefferson market police court and sent to Blackwell's Island.

THE IOWA REPRESENTATIVES.

Messrs. Kasson and Price at Issue.

INTENTIONS OF THE RECONSTRUCTION COMMITTEE.

Resolution for Trial of Davis.

STEEL RAILS FOR AMERICAN ROADS.

Etc., Etc., Etc.

Special Despatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.
WASHINGTON, January, 15, 1865.

The House was entertained to-day with the rehearsal of a lengthy chapter relating to Iowa politics and politicals. Mr. Kasson made a speech, in which he took for ground that the Congress could not prescribe the qualifications of voters in the States lately in rebellion, and that the elective franchise ought to be extended only to free intelligent negroes. He spoke at some length of the evil effects that would result if it was extended to all.

Mr. Price charged that Kasson misrepresented his own district and State and said Iowa would not sustain the man who trimmed for the benefit of slaveholders and rebels. Kasson retorted that Price had nearly thrown his own district into the hands of opposition by his radical course. Price responded that Kasson had been repudiated by great Union meetings, at Davenport, and Kasson said that a repudiation resolution was drawn, or instigated by Price, which the latter denied. About two hours were given to the quarrel, to the great delight of the crowded galleries, and an attentive house, and the scene was rather more disgraceful than any other of the session.

The New York Daily News, having made the infamous charge that Mrs. Lincoln was guilty of the larceny of the furniture &c., of the White House. Mr. Kasson made a brief statement, in the House to-day and said that the special Committee appointed to provide relief for the family of the late President, had examined witnesses upon the matter of this base accusation, and it was proved conclusively that Mrs. Lincoln has not taken from the White House a single article of public property, with the exception of an article which was so identified with Mr. Lincoln as to make it a personal memento, and which she was permitted to take away by consent of the Secretary of the Interior.

The Senate did not as was expected, take up Judge Trumbull's resolution for enlarging the powers of the Freedmen's Bureau, and securing all persons in civil rights, to-day, and probably will not do so before Wednesday or Thursday, as Garrett Davis will occupy to-morrow with a characteristic speech for home consumption and effect upon the coming Kentucky election.

A large number of men who done duty as pilots of gunboats, on the Mississippi river, have made application to be classed as officers, so that they may receive three months extra pay allowed by the Navy Department, prior to muster out. The matter has been before the House Naval Committee, who will report against the application. They find that most of the pilots were men of Southern sympathies who were pressed into our service, and suffered no loss, as they, themselves, allege.

The Reconstruction Committee, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding, have, as yet, done nothing but organize and discuss various methods for doing work entrusted to them. They want leave to send for persons and papers, and a resolution granting it has passed the Senate, and will probably be taken up in the House to-morrow. They will then ask an appropriation to meet current expenses. When they will ask leave to send sub-committees through the South is not settled. They hope to begin taking evidence at the session next Friday.

Senator Howard expressed his determination to press his resolution calling on the President to try Jeff. Davis by a Military Commission, and will, at the proper time, if much opposition is made thereto, support it in a speech, showing that to be the only proper tribunal for acting on his case. The consideration of this resolution was objected to this afternoon by Reverdy Johnson.

The Secretary of War has addressed a letter to the heads of the several Bureaus of his Department, directing that the National Intelligencer, of this city, be removed from the list of newspapers authorized to publish advertisements for the War Department, there being no further necessity for employing it for that purpose.

The Constitutional Union, another Copperhead sheet, of limited circulation, in this city, still retains the advertising patronage of the Government.

A letter written by Hon. A. H. Stephens, late Vice President of the Southern Confederacy, has been received here, in which he says that the original Union men of Georgia suffer greater persecution now, on account of their sentiments, than they did during the days of the Confederacy.

The receipts from internal revenue to-day amounted to seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

Two national banks were established to-day the Planters', of Richmond, capital $200,000; and First, of Grinnell, Iowa, capital $50,000.

Three more invoices of goods, amounting in value to over $2,500, have just been received from the Birmingham Society, England, for distribution among the destitute freedmen of the United States. Goods of this description, by a recent decision of the Secretary of the Treasury, are admitted free of duty at the several ports of entry.

Senator Dixon, of Connecticut, whose name has been mentioned in connection with the Secretary of the Navy, desires it to be known that he is not an applicant for the position, and would not accept it were it tendered to him.

The Internal Revenue Bureau has information which leads to the belief that counterfeit revenue stamps are being extensively manufactured.

Hon. Lewis D. Campbell has not yet signified to the President of the State Department his acceptance of the Mexican mission.

The demand of the American railroads for steel rails, ties, axles and crossings, and other similar materials, is increasing rapidly, and steel for these purposes is now considered a necessity by our first engineers. The steel, it is found, wears twenty times as long as the iron rail, while the ties and axles far exceed iron in strength and durability, and the most important of all, in safety. The Pennsylvania Railroad has contracted for four thousand tons of steel rails, and the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad for one thousand tons. The prime cost of steel rails is about fifty per cent above the cost of iron rails. It is the purpose of the Companies mentioned, to substitute steel rails for the iron ones now in use in sections of their respective roads requiring repairs. They have determined never to relay their roads with iron rails again.

Assistant Secretary Chandler under date of Savannah, Georgia, on the 9th inst., states that he is still busily engaged in investigating the Treasury affairs in that section, and will soon leave for the Gulf States on a similar mission.

It is said that the New York importers as well as the English merchants are contributing freely to the treasury of the Free Trade League here. It is likewise reported that Auguste Belmont has forwarded to it his check for $50,000.

Suicide—The Otero Murder—Sales of Captured Cotton.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Louisa Arnold, of this city, this morning cut her throat, but failing to die, jumped into East river. She was rescued and taken to the hospital.

Great excitement was occasioned this morning at the Brooklyn Court House, in the attempt to empannel a jury for the trial of Gonzales, the murderer of Otero. Five hundred and eighty jurors were summoned. Not one juror has yet been obtained, every one whose name was called having formed an opinion. It is hardly probable that a jury will be obtained to-day.

The Secretary of the Treasury has instructed cotton agents in this city, to make no more sales of captured cotton for the present, on the ground that the delay will be advantageous to the Government in bringing into the Treasury a higher price for the cotton than can now be obtained.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

Trial of Jeff. Davis Urged

ALLEGHENY COUNTY JAIL ACT.

Etc., Etc., Etc.

Both branches of the Legislature met at the usual hour this morning with a large number of members in attendance. The following business was transacted:

The resolution was read and referred to the proper committee.

Mr. Herron presented a petition from the citizens of Shaler township in relation to roads.

The following bills were read in place:

By Mr. Glass—An act to exempt certain persons in Allegheny county from the payment of bounty tax.

By Mr. Mechling—An act providing for the establishment of a ferry in Armstrong county.

By Mr. Sturdevant—An act to provide for the assessment and collection of taxes in Crawford county.

Mr. McKee read acts relative to bounties in Unity and Newton townships, Westmoreland county.

The House then adjourned.

SENATE.—Mr. Bigham from the Judiciary Local Committee reported the following: A supplement to an act for the better management of the Allegheny County Prison, in connection with which authorizing the erection of a house of employment; also an act repealing an act relative to the erection of additional water works in Allegheny City; also an act vacating Ætna street, in the city of Pittsburg.

Mr. White, from same Committee, reported an act vacating Abdell street and Barnes alley in the Second ward, Allegheny city.

Mr. White read in place an act establishing a ferry over Pithole creek, Venango county.

A joint resolution, emanating from the House, was introduced, authorizing the Clerks to hold bills in their possession until the return of Governor Curtin. The resolution was discussed at length, after which it was indefinitely postponed. The Senate then adjourned.

FROM WASHINGTON.

A Negroe's Finger Sent to Senator Sumner.

OUR RELATIONS WITH FRANCE.

Freedmen's Affairs in Alabama.

CONDITION OF THE SOUTHERN STATES

The Disloyal Officer in Texas

Constitutionality of the Test Oath.

NEW YORK, January 15.—The Tribune's Washington special, of Saturday night, says: A box was left at the door of Senator Sumner's private room addressed to him, and containing a finger cut from the hand of a negro, wrapped in a note, calling the Senator by an obscene name, and stating that the writer "sends him a piece of one of his friends, and if that bill of yours passes I will have a piece of you."

It is stated upon good authority that the Senate Committee on Contested Elections has prepared a report adverse to Senator Stockton of New Jersey.

The Requisitions of Paymasters have been promptly met by the Treasury, and they are now being dispatched to the Military Departments to pay off the troops.

National currency to the amount of $2,832,655 was issued by the Treasury Department last week.

The Tribune's Washington special states that private letters from a trustworthy source have been received stating that the legislature of the French empire will assemble about the 18th inst., and the Emperor, in his opening address, will express most amicable and pacific sentiments towards the United States, and, unless in the meanwhile the relations of the two countries become hostile, by measures or questions of honor, will promise to evacuate Mexico as promptly as practicable.

General O. O. Howard has just received from Gen. Swain, Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau for the State of Alabama, a report in regard to the affairs of the freedmen of that State for the month of December. The General states that in some localities the planters have made strong combinations against employing their former slaves, but the latter persisted in demanding employment until the combination was broken up. Poor Houses for the relief of destitute freedmen are very much needed throughout the State, but the County Commissioners seem indisposed to aid in their establishment.

The usual contract price for freedmen's labor is $10 per month for men, including quarters, food and medical attendance for the entire family. Female labor is estimated at $8 per month. The Commissioner states that more than 5,000 northern men are in the State of Alabama, for whom the freedmen show a marked preference. The demand for labor, he states, in all portions of the State is much greater than the supply.

A gentleman just arrived here from New Orleans, says: The whole difficulty with the freedmen and those who wish their labor in Louisiana, lies in the persistent efforts to overreach them. Where fair wages are offered and honestly paid, there is no trouble in getting faithful laborers. Our informant has had as many as two thousand negroes in his employ during the past three years, and has found it necessary to dismiss only six for unfaithfulness.

Gentlemen arriving here from New Orleans and Mobile, overland, report that numbers of Northern men, engaged in planting in Mississippi, Louisiana and Alabama, are rapidly settling up their affairs, for the purpose of removing themselves and their families from Southern soil and out of harm's way. The condition of things there is described as most uncomfortable and threatening to Northern settlers. The statement is further made that when the war closed, the best of feeling prevailed among all classes. The rebels were heartily rejoiced at the conclusion of the war, and expressed themselves satisfied to accept all the conditions of defeat, freely admitting that had they conquered us they should have compelled submission from us to their exactions.

The World's Washington special says: D. G. Ogden, who resigned the Auditorship of the New York Custom House, to accept the office of President of the New York Trust Company, has been informed by the Secretary of the Treasury, that if he will return to the Custom House, his salary will be raised to $8,000 a year.

The partisans of Chief Justice Chase, are urging the President to appoint Mr. S. F. Bailey, Collector of the port of New York.

The telegraphic statement that General Custar is the officer charged with having uttered treasonable sentiments in Texas, is not true. General Merritt is understood to be the officer referred to.

The Tribune's special says: The Supreme Court is expected to deliver a decision to-day, supporting the Constitutionality of the test oath.

The Herald's Washington special says: No reduction in Revenue Tax on Tobacco, Whiskey, Cotton or Petroleum, is contemplated, but the tax is likely to be increased.

It is stated that General Grant is at work on details of a new Military Bill, to be incorporated with the best features of Senator Wilson's bill, or supercede it altogether.

The Disaster by Ice at St. Louis—Loss $800,000.

ST. LOUIS, JAN. 15.—The estimated loss of the steamers, ferry-boats, wharf-boats, barges, canal boats, ferry docks, &c., in this harbor since the first movement of the ice is $800,000. Insurance probably about half that amount. Ice is still running, but navigation is partially resumed with the South.

Methodist Missionary Society.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 15.—A snow storm, with a cold north-east wind, prevailing since 3 o'clock, continues and promises to be very severe.

The Maryland Institute was crowded this afternoon by a vast audience to attend the anniversary of the Methodist Missionary Society. There was an immense gathering of Sunday school children, and vast numbers were unable te gain admitttance.

From Charleston, S. C.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—The Herald's Charleston correspondence reports the arrest of Theodore D. Jeroey, Henry Corbin and A. S. Johnston for concern in blockade running during the war. This explains the dispatch from Charleston of the 11th, published to-day.

A series of editorials, said to be written by Ex-Governor Magrath at the instance of Gen. Sickles, and arguing that the success of the Confederacy would have been a misfortune to the South, has been published in Charleston, creating considerable comment.

From Nashville.

NASHVILLE, Jan. 15.—Heavy rain all day; river rising, with ten feet on the Shoals.

Cotton firmer; prices range from 30 to 42c. Receipts and shipments light. Corn has advanced to 90c; market firm.

EXTRA BOUNTY TO SOLDIERS.

Paymaster General Opposes It.

PETITION IN FAVOR OF PROTECTION.

Treasury Circular to Customs Collectors.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—It appears from official statements that the total number of men who have received, respectively, $400, $300 or $100 bounty, during the war, was 1,730,340, amounting in the aggregate to nearly $301,500,000. The total enlistments during the war were 2,461,000 men, of whom upwards of 731,000 received no bounty.

In answer to an inquiry, by General Schenck, Chairman of the Military Committee, respecting the proposed law equalizing the bounties of all soldiers who served during the war, the Paymaster General says some refused to pay each soldier or his representative enough to bring up his bounty to $400. The largest sum paid is nearly six hundred and eighty-three million dollars, and the sum required to pay each soldier such highest bounty, in proportion to his time of service, is $550,000,000.

The Paymaster General says: The sums estimated as necessary to accomplish the end proposed, even if reduced by one-half, gives an amount of money sufficiently enormous and startling in its proportions, to awaken the gravest consideration as to the expediency of the measure, if, indeed, it can be regarded at all practicable at the present crisis, without entailing financial ruin. In a further argument against the measure, he says it is certain, that to a greater extent than is now apprehended, such legislation will inure to the benefit of speculating adventurers all over the land, who have been buying soldiers discharges with a view to such anticipated legislation, and who are now doubtless covertly pressing it to consummation. The large bounty allowances thus far given, in spite of the careful vigilance and scrutiny of the officers of his department, have led to frauds incalculable. It cannot be doubtful that such extension of these allowances as is proposed, will give a new impetus and opportunity to evil doers in that line beyond anything yet.

The Supreme Court to-day decided a number of important cases, including that of Brigadier General Thompson, appellant against the United States, appeal from the District Court for the Eastern District of New York Supreme Court. It is held that the District Court has exclusive jurisdiction in cases of prizes. Authorities were quoted to show that seizure may be made when there is probable cause. The case of a probable cause was made out in the opinion of the Supreme Court, which to-day affirmed the decree of the Court by law.

The interesting statement is made, derived from official source, that during the Mexican war, the loss by paymasters in the army was $15,000, while during the war with Great Britain, where as much more was expended as in the Mexican war, the loss by paymasters was $300,000, and during the war of the rebellion, although the disbursements amounted to $128,000,000, the loss will be $500,000, or less than half a million.

A petition has been received by both houses of Congress opposed to the petition signed by officers of the Free Trade League. The remonstrants say they represent to a large extent the interests of agriculture, mining, manufacturers and commerce, and they most respectfully dissent from the views of political economy and of the true business relations which exist among mankind, that are expressed by the Free Trade League.

A snowstorm commenced here about at three o'clock this afternoon. There is good sleighing now, at ten o'clock, and snow and hail are still falling.

Secretary M'Culloch to-day addressed the following circular to the collectors of customs:

SIRS—I have been informed that the ship Sandusky recently arrived arrived at Fayal from Bristol for New York, is laden in full with hides that have been taken from cattle that had the disease now prevalent in England and is known as the Cattle Plague. Custom House officers cannot use too much vigilance in guarding against the introduction of this terrible disease, and will permit no foreign hides to be landed, without first reporting on each case, and receiving instructions from the Department, allowing entry.

By direction of Maj. Gen. Hancock, the Military District of West Maryland, Pennsylvania, Delaware, eastern shore, and the District of West Virginia, have been discontinued. Harper's Ferry has been maintained as an independent post.

Maj. Gen. J. H. Wilson, U. S. Volunteers, has been assigned temporarily to the command of the Department of Georgia.

Col. Brown, 7th Regulars, has been ordered to assume command of the Port of Philadelphia and the detachments adjacent thereto.

XXXIXth CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION

WASHINGTON, December 15, 1865.

SENATE.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill to provide for the appearance of every officer in the army in the cavalry, artillery and infantry service, before a board of examination to be convened and appointed by the Secretary of War. Officers who fail to pass a satisfactory examination shall be put upon the retired list or dropped from the rolls, and the vacancies thus created shall be filled by selection from more who have passed the most satisfactory examination without regard to seniority or arm of the service. The bill was referred to the Military Committee.

Mr. Wilson introduced the bill recently offered by him, fixing the strength and organization of the army, with certain amendments, and on motion it was recommended to the Military Committee. As amended, it provides that the army shall hereafter consist of five regiments of artillery, two of cavalry and fifty-five of infantry. Ten regiments of the infantry shall be colored troops and veteran reserves.

Mr. Wade presented a memorial, unanimously signed, in favor of a Protective Tariff, which was referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Sumner presented the petition of the colored Methodist Episcopal Church, of Missouri, in favor of universal suffrage, which was referred to the special Committee on Reconstruction.

Mr. Sherman offered the following, and explained that the person named in the resolution, had been appointed upon the recommendation of a member of the House from Kentucky, in preference to the son of Gen. J. J. Dickson, a Federal officer, killed in the late war.

Resolved, That James J. Wheeler, of Kentucky, now a cadet in the Naval Academy, and formerly in the military service of the so-called Confederate States, be dismissed from the Academy, and no person shall be appointed as a cadet in the Naval or Military Academy of the United States, who shall have rendered aid and assistance to said rebellion.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Naval Affairs.

Mr. Anthony presented the petition of certain naval officers who took part in the destruction of the Albemarle, asking for an allowance of prize money; which was referred to the Naval Committee.

Mr. Anthony presented a petition asking that Congress enact that a copy of every public document published be sent to every public school in the country, which was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Sherman presented the petition of Ohio soldiers, asking an equalization of bounty between those who enlisted early and those who enlisted late in the war, which was referred to the Military Committee.

Mr. Cowan presented a petition praying for the retention of the Veteran Reserve Corps as a part of the United States Army; which was referred to the Military Committee.

Mr. Sprague presented the memorials of manufacturers of steel, sheet iron, bronze, colors, salt and other articles, stating that the impost duty is so low as to operate against such manufacturers, and asking for a remedy or increased impost duty.

Mr. Sprague said he had introduced a resolution on this subject recently, merely as a resolution of inquiry. He had desired simply to give a voice of warning, which his own experience had taught him was necessary. He had no interest in any particular department of manufacture, but he knew that it was necessary to protect the manufacturing interests of this country. He did not believe that certain foreign nations were entitled to the sympathy of the Senate, and when he saw petitions introduced here, which came from men who were paid by parties in other countries, he could not help doubting the honesty of their purpose. All he had to say of a personal nature concerning the criticisms and complaints of a certain New York paper and of the other House, was that the course of this newspaper, and of the party to which it belonged, should be known to which it had been four years inimical to the country.

Mr. Wilson, from the Military Committee, reported favorably a bill in relation to the re-establishment of a National Military and Naval Asylum for the relief of totally disabled officiers and soldiers of the U. S. army.

Mr. Howard's joint resolution that whereas it appears by the report of the Secretary of War, that Jeff. Davis and C. C. Clay, held in confinement, and who have been concerned in the assassination of President Lincoln, and for the murder of federal soldiers held as prisoners of war, be tried immediately by a Military Commissioner in Court Martial, was objected to, and goes over till to-morrow.

Mr. Chandler, at the conclusion of his remarks, offered a joint resolution declaring that, Whereas by the recent publication of the diplomatic correspondence between the Government and Great Britain, we are fully advised that the last named government has refused to repair the damages committed on American commerce through agency of her subjects, during the late rebellion, and has declined to arbitrate and finally not to hear anything further on the subject; therefore,

Resolved, That the President is hereby requested to withdraw our Minister from the Court of St. James, and issue a proclamation of non-intercourse which is hereby declared to take effect, after such proclamation shall have been issued.

Mr. Chandler asked for the immediate consideration of the above resolution.

Mr. Dixon objected to it. It lies over.

Mr. Nesmith offered a resolution requesting the Military Committee to enquire into the expediency of a law creating brevet rangs among those only, who have served with distinction in the field.

HOUSE.

Mr. Delano, of Ohio, presented the credentials of the Representatives elect from the State of Kansas, which were referred to the Committee on Reconstruction.

Mr. Conkling, of New York, introduced an amendment to the Constitution, which was similarly referred. The amendment provides that the basis of representation and taxation be the whole number of the citizens of the United States, but where colored persons are denied the right of suffrage, such rate shall be excluded from the basis.

Mr. Broomall, of Pennsylvania, offered a resolution setting forth that as white men in the District of Columbia have desired that black men shall not vote in the District of Columbia, to inquire into the expediency of ordering an election, by which black men shall decide whether white men shall vote.

Mr. Finck, of Ohio, moved that the resolution be laid on the table. The motion carried by a vote of 13 to 12.

A resolution was passed directing the Ways and Means Committee to inquire into the expediency of repealing the two per cent tax on hulls of vessels launched. The resolution passed.

The Public Lands Committee was instructed to inquire into the healthfulness of the Presidential mansion—as to suitableness for family of the President, and if not suitable, to report an estimate for a suitable mansion in a proper locality.

A resolution was passed instructing Ways and Means Committee to inquire into the expediency of requiring all fire and marine insurance companies to invest in Government securities, and deposit a certain percentage of their capital and receipts in the United States Treasury, for the better security of those insured, under such rules as may be prescribed by Congress.

A resolution was passed instructing the Banking Committee to inquire into the expediency of allowing any existing National Bank to change its location into any other State or territory.

A resolution was adopted instructing the Ways and Means Committee, to enquire into the expediency of so amending the Internal Revenue laws that insurance agents, the net proceeds of whose business does not exceed $2,500 per annum, shall not be required to take out license.

A resolution was adopted, instructing the Ways and Means Committee to enquire whether increased duty should not be placed upon foreign umbrellas and parasols.

A resolution was adopted instructing the Military Committee to enquire into the expediency of including non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates, in the regular army, who were in the service at the breaking out of the rebellion or during any part of it, in any bounties paid to the volunteers of 1861 and 1862.

A resolution was adopted, instructing the Committee on Ways and Means to enquire into the expediency of requiring a license on horse races, where admission fee is charged, and a tax on the gross receipts of the proprietors.

A resolution was adopted instructing the Judiciary Committee to enquire into the expediency of an amendment to the naturalization laws, so that all persons be required to read the Constitution intelligently before taking the oath supporting it.

The House bill to facilitate postal military communication between the States having been returned from the Senate, Mr. Washburne moved the vote by which it passed to be reconsidered, with a view to have it committed to the Judiciary Committee, they being instructed to report at any time.

Objection was made and the resolution lies over.

A resolution was adopted by a vote of eighty two a against seventy seven, instructing the Judiciary Committee to enquire into the expediency of so amending the act relating to the test oath, so as to allow attorney's to practice without taking said oath.

Mr. Kasson, of Iowa, opposed the extension of the suffrage without restrictions.

Concerning the rumored abstraction of articles from the White House after the death of President Lincoln, Mr. Kasson, of Iowa, said not a solitary article belonging to the Government was taken away when Mrs. Lincoln left the house. The only instance that afforded ground for the statement was, that an article used in the family was highly valued by the widow, as it was an object of President Lincoln's admiration. Mrs. Lincoln asked that it might be taken away, and the question was referred to the Secretary of the Interior, who decided that no objection could ensue as to its removal. The boxes reported to have been taken away were all private property.

In a debate concerning the bill for suffrage in the District of Columbia, Mr. Kasson, of Iowa, read from the Federalist to show that Mr. Madison and the framers of the Constitution never intended that Congress should prescribe the qualifications of voters in the States.

Mr. Kelly, of Maryland, quoted the language of Mr. Madison to show that when the people of a State are by any means deprived of the right of suffrage, it was proper that the evil should be remedied by the general government.

Mr. Kelly said he was for the Constitution in all its length and breadth, as understood by Washington and Madison, and for it with all powers which they maintained essential to its perpetuity.

Mr. Kasson, in reply, said he was for the Constitution as it is, and he re-asserted that Congress has no right to prescribe who in Iowa shall vote for members of the most numerous branch of the Legislature. If suffrage were made universal in some portions of the country, there would be no security for the permanence of our institutions. The Anglo-Saxon race only had the power to govern the country, and prescribe the principle of self-government, after establishing it. As to the District of Columbia, there are two classes of blacks, one old residents and the other new comers. Suffrage ought to be given to them by degrees, based on intelligence. He was in favor of Jeffersonian and Lincolnian principles, that suffrage should be based on intelligence, and on the gallantry of those who fought for their country. He was opposed to the extension of the right of suffrage to everybody, and he was opposed to the pending bill, because it did not exclude the rebels, and because it proposed to give the right to negroes who have recently immigrated into the District, without any restriction. He believed the majority of this House were opposed to universal suffrage without restriction, in the District of Columbia.

Mr. Price, of Iowa, replied to a portion of Mr. Kasson's remarks about negro suffrage. In Iowa that issue was distinctly made in the State, and it was carried by a majority of 16,000.

Mr. Kasson responded, justifying his course, in Iowa, saying he was in favor of qualified negro suffrage, and claiming he had nailed his colleague's misrepresentations to the counter.

Mr. Price replied, saying he could bring proof in justification of all that he had asserted about the coming question on the bill before the House.

The House then adjourned.

PROTECTIONIST REMONSTRANCE.

Treasury Receipts for the Year.

ACTION OF THE CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—The Commercial's Washington special says: The American Home League, organized in favor of protection, has presented a remonstrance, to both Houses of Congress, against the petition of the Free Trade League.

Messrs. Galt, Harvey, and Howland, of Canada, Smith, of New Brunswick, and Henry, of Nova Scotia, have arrived here, as a delegation, to negotiate for a renewal of the reciprocity treaty.

The House Committee of Ways and Means, has taken no action, as yet, on Secretary McCulloch's Financial Bill.

The returns of Internal Revenue from June 30th to Saturday last were one hundred and seventy-nine million five hundred thousand dollars. The current year's receipts will unquestionably exceed three hundred million dollars.

The Southern claimants of seats are much discouraged at the aspect of affairs.

The Post's dispatch says the Ways and Means Committee will take up the new financial bill to-morrow. There has been no expression of opinion upon the bill, no quorum having yet been present.

The previous question on the equal suffrage bill will be called to-morrow.

The Reconstruction Committee had prominent gentlemen before them this morning, to give evidence concerning the condition of the South.

The Committee on the death of Mr. Lincoln have examined into the Bristol newspaper charges, that thefts were committed by members of his family, in the White House, and find them entirely false.

LATEST FENIAN MOVEMENTS.

Maximilian's Express Company.

CURIOUS DEVELOPMENTS EXPECTED.

NEW YORK, Jan 15.—On next Wednesday, the Fenian Senate will try the three members of Senate, who joined O'Mahony. They are charged with violating their oath of office, and repudiating the Constitution of the Fenian Brotherhood.

General Sweeny has issued an order to all the Circles, to be firm in their determination to aid him in his efforts to commence his grand military movements, which will embrace the opening campaign against England. P. O'Rourke, Treasurer of the Senate branch of the Brotherhood, has placed the amount in his hands at the command of Gen. Sweeny, and it is to be used in the purchase of war materials.

Letters from Paris say there is strong desire on the part of the French Government and people for the inauguration of measures which shall restore their trade with this country to its former proportions, from which it has greatly fallen off.

Gen. Schofield was still in Paris at the beginning of the month and was receiving marked attention from officers of the French army.

A movement is on foot for procuring a suitable testimonial for Pilots Seguire and Jones, who saved the passengers from the steamer Mary Boardman at great risk to themselves.

Dispatches from Washington say the information called for by Congress, respecting Maximilian's Express Company, will show a singular state of things. It appears that the charter was obtained from Maximilian for such a company, and immediately thereafter, certain parties organized it, and issued large quantities of stock, and distributed it very freely among prominent men in New York and Philadelphia. It is alleged that correspondence will show that a large amount of this stock was received by an official for certain facilities granted to the company in allowing vessels to depart from the United States loaded with articles contraband of war.

Some of the officers of the Veteran Reserve Corps are endeavoring to secure the organization of a brigade of frontier guards, modeled on the coast guards of Great Britain, to be stationed along the Canadian frontier.

REPRIEVE OF THE POISONER.

It is currently reported, upon good authority, that the Secretary of the Commonwealth intends to issue a reprieve for the modern Lucretia Borgia, Mrs. GRINDER, who is under sentence of death for wholesale poisoning, and whose day of execution was fixed by the Governor before he sailed for Cuba.

When this report reached our ears we felt a strong disinclination to believe it. It seemed too preposterous to be credited. But we are assured that the act is really contemplated and in danger of being accomplished.

The plea engaged in favor of it is, that Mrs. GRINDER is a monomaniac, and therefore not a proper subject for the extreme penalty of the law.

Why, then, was not this plea put in upon her trial? The murderess was defended by one of the most able counsellors at the bar; and if there was any force in such a plea, or any facts to sustain it, we are justified in concluding that it would have been used by her attorney. The only proper place for urging such a defense was upon the trial and before the jury. It was a question of fact, for a jury only to decide; and as it was not submitted to the jury, the only proper judges of its truth or falsity, there can be no good reason for believing that there was any evidence to sustain it.

It is an ungracious task to interpose against clemency, in any case; but we know that we speak the sentiment of the entire community when we say that the reported reprieve, if granted, be an unjustifiable use of power. We still cling to the belief that the purpose to issue it has not been entertained, or that, if it has been, it will be at once abandoned.

SCHOOLS AND SCHOOL BOOKS.

The Harrisburg Telegraph throws out the suggestion that in addition to furnishing Free Tuition in the Common Schools, it might be wise and beneficial to gratuitously furnish School Books. While not prepared to adopt the hint, we make it the occasion of some observations on Schools and Text Books.

Under our system there are but two forms of discipline on which government bestows special patronage. These are schools, on the one hand, and jails, penitentiaries and gibbets, on the other; the former, inculcative, and the latter repressive. Concerning these there are two questions of chiefest moment. Which is most effective? and which most economic? Not that either, in the present condition of human nature, can support the other; but it is fair and needful to inquire and know which renders the most profitable returns for the money expended on it. It is, perhaps, sufficient for the object in hand to say that the larger the outlay on schools, if the money is judiciously expended, the less it will be necessary to expend on the repressive system. Whether or not, ignorance is the mother of devotion, may be left to the theologians to determine, but magistrates and statesmen know that ignorance is one of the most prolific causes of vice and crime.

As for school books, the foremost evil consists in the variety of them. If there were fewer kinds, the diminution would work great ameliorations to the pockets of parents and the heads of children. The leading text books are on the whole so nearly balanced as to intrinsic merits, that it would not matter much which of them should chance to be suppressed. The constant change from one set of books to another, involves an unnecessary tax; taking the whole Commonwealth into account, fully equal to one-half the other cost of the whole education system; and in poor families it is absolutely oppressive.

There is not only too great a variety of Text Books, but the number of branches taught, and the sub-division of studies in the same branches, present evils demanding remedy.

Children are constantly over-worked at school, and with injurious results that commonly last through life. A mature man or woman cannot pursue from four to six different studies at the same time, with effect, or without damaging consequences both as to general progress and the habit of continuity.

Besides, we think it a mistake to teach any science under two or more formularies. Hence we would exclude the whole class of juvenile arithmetics and all other Text Books of corresponding descriptions. Two sets of rules, or, rather, one set expressed by two differing phraseologies, only perplexes and retards.

The chief thing to learn at school, is to Learn how to Learn; and that is the very thing which is commonly taught least of all things. To learn particular forms and processes is easy enough. Multitudes do that. But so to comprehend a subject as to know why the forms and processes connected with it produce certain results, is generally hard, and what comparatively few attain to.

Reading, Writing and Ciphering are the three educational tools. The fundamental accomplishment of Reading, applied continuously in one direction, produces a clergyman; applied in another it produces a lawyer; applied in another it makes a historian; applied in many, it turns out a variously cultured man. So of Writing and Arithmetic. When a person has such a knowledge of these three instruments as to make them a pleasant and certain possession, he has all the preliminary outfit that is necessary. All the rest is in his own power.

Comparatively few pupils come out of the Common Schools with this inestimable outfit. Studies are multiplied, and scholars are hurried from one thing to another with such rapidity that they obtain only a superficial acquaintance with any department of knowledge. The result is inevitable. Superficiality is the rule, and thoroughness the exception. In trying to teach too much, little is taught as effectually as it ought to be. Moreover, if the foundation of knowledge is laid defectively there is great danger that the superstructure will never attain pre-eminence and solidity.

HARPER'S WEEKLY states that, if Congress does not soon modify the taxes—some fifteen in number—levied upon those publishing books in this country, the entire book publishing business of the United States will be transferred to England. It is now much cheaper to print and bind the books in England, and pay the duty on their importation, than it is to print them here. Congress, we trust, will see the necessity of repealing all taxes on knowledge, direct or indirect.

THE belligerent POLLARD, of the Richmond Enquirer, seems to be pitching into friend and foe, regardless of all restraint. His last effort was to cowhide the correspondent of the New York Times. POLLARD must be crazy. The Times is one of the best friends he has.

JEFF. DAVIS.—It is plain that there is no purpose to try or punish JEFF. DAVIS. Why, then, keep up the farce of his imprisonment? Either hang him or let him go.

GENERAL RAILROAD LAW.—Two bills are now before the State Senate, for establishing a general Railroad law in this State. One of these has been introduced by our Senator, Mr. BIGHAM, and the other by Senator LOWRY, of Erie.

We have not yet examined the details of these two bills, but we shall hail the day with pleasure when Pennsylvania shall enter upon the enjoyment of a general Railroad Law—when men of capital can construct a railroad anywhere, without having to go to the legislature for a charter.

Of course, in passing such a law, due care must be taken to protect the holders of lands over which such roads may pass, from injury or impositions, and also to see that proper restrictions are imposed upon all companies organized under it. This done, the whole state will be thrown open to enterprise and development.

We have general manufacturing laws, general incorporation laws, general borough laws, and so on; why not, also, a general railroad law? There is but one answer to this—it will interfere with existing monopolies. But that amounts to nothing. The monopolies should never have been permitted to exist.

There need be no fear that too many railroads will be built. Capitalists are not foolish enough to throw their money away on enterprises that do not hold out good promise of repayment. But even if that were not so, the construction of numerous railroads cannot injure the people any. It is their interest to have the railroads built, no matter whether the builders make or lose.

THE "Conservative" presses delight in quoting from the milk-and-water papers of the country, and in dignifying them as Republican organs. The latest instance is a quotation in the National Intelligencer from the Pittsburgh Chronicle, which it styles "a decided Republican paper." It will be news to this community to know that the Chronicle is decided upon the side of any party.

JUAREZ.—The report got up by the friends of Maximilian that Juarez had fled to Texas, turns out to be untrue. The President of the Mexican Republic was at Chihuahua at last accounts. The people will do well to receive all reports from Mexico, with many grains of allowance, which are favorable to Maximilion. The most of them are manufactured for a purpose.

THE Boston Post, a democratic paper, admits that suffrage based on intelligence, without regard to distinctions of race or color, is the true kind of suffrage.

LETTER FROM NEW YORK.

Editorial Correspondence of Pittsburgh Gazette.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13, 1866.

It has not escaped observation for some months past that the formation of new parties was seriously contemplated, not only by men of large social and personal influence, but by personages occupying official stations of great patronage and far-reaching power. But this scheme had progressed farther than I had supposed until quite recently. Since I came here, I have been made acquainted with facts and particulars which illustrate what was really intended, and by what means and instrumentalities it was proposed to accomplish the designed result.

One eminent gentleman, high in the confidence of the Union party, and sharing most largely in its honors, has repeatedly said, with distinct reference to party organizations, that it was "time to plow anew, and to sow fresh seed." With his intimates, he has not thought it necessary to cover his intentions with the drapery of symbolism, but has spoken directly and with rigor.

Upon the admission to seats in the two houses of the men claiming to have been duly elected from the states lately in revolt, the nucleus of a new organization would be obtained. These gentlemen combine all the requisites for leadership. They have talent, tact, experience, the confidence of constituencies, strong convictions, and all the appliances requisite for consolidating one-third of the States in favor of whatever party they please, new or old. From long habit, from similarity of sentiments on several most important topics, from identity of traditional repugnances, and from similarity of hopes and aspirations, the northern democrats would readily coalesce with this element. Indeed, they constitute part and parcel of this element itself and their leaders have been foremost and potential in efforts to facilitate and strengthen this movement.

To these factions the Conservatives are attracted as naturally as flies are to carrion. Fearful of change, distrustful of progress, inclined to aristocracy, they find a party that is democratic only in name, that clings tenaciously to caste and proscription, that affiliated cordially with slavery as long as it existed, and intends that as many of its peculiarities as possible, shall, under various pretexts, survive its formal extinction, more congenial to their tastes and ideas, than a party, belonging not so much to the past as the future.

Of course the leaders of this faction avow neither all they feel nor all they intend. Were they to go out of the Republican ranks without a respectable following, their position in the new party would be one of subordination and sufferance. They would have power neither to command consideration nor to enforce concessions. Hence, they labor by ingenious and sophistical pretenses to draw unsuspecting Republicans, holding a more distinctly marked type of ideas, under their influence, and mold them by insensible degrees into conformity to their wishes.

To these three elements must be added another. This is composed of men who were originally Democrats, but who left that party either because of its pro-slaveryism, or because of its disloyalty during the war. These men are mostly Free Traders. Take the conductors of the New York Evening Post as a specimen of the sort first indicated. They joined the Republican movement in 1856, through honest dislike of slavery. They wrought long and nobly for the extirpation of that system. But they have never abated or withheld their attachment to Free Trade. Slavery has received, as they think, its death-wound, and must soon expire. Meanwhile, Protection, which they detest, next to Slavery, has attained new vigor. Now, they want and mean if possible, to give Protection its death-wound also. They dearly want to go into the new party. This is not astonishing; but another thing is. They show a willingness to abate many of the safeguards due the ex-slaves, and essential to prevent their subjection under a new system combining most of the odious peculiarities of the old one. They deceive themselves, or allow themselves to be deceive, as to what is to be the actual condition of the emancipated blacks until stipulations in their behalf shall be entered into and enforced. At least they regard Protection to Labor as a greater evil than any other now impending; and they will accept any arrangement that seems likely to frustrate it.

Those democrats who left the old party on account of its disloyalty are mainly in the same attitude, except that they never had any special repugnances to slavery. This must be said of some of them; they are not yet satisfied with democratic professions of loyalty. Perhaps still others of them have steadily held to the doctrine of Protection from traditions coming down from Jackson and Jefferson.

The attitude of Congress has frustrated this Free Trade conspiracy. But mark! Every attempt to weaken the authority of Congress, come from what quarter it may, and no matter what may be the motive avowed for it, plays directly into the hands of the Free Traders. All the controling elements which are endeavoring to distract, disparage and weaken Congress, are Free Trade elements. Any other element that helps this movement will be swallowed up and lost when the question of Protection shall ultimately be grappled with.

Many of the friends of Protection in Pittsburgh and other municipalities of Allegheny county, are short-sighted or mistaken on this point. Their only safety consists in standing by Congress, and by the Republican majorities in the two Houses. If they are wise they will not divide on this issue, nor allow divisions to be fomented. I am amazed at the fatuity some of them evince in this matter. They are not only allowing a chasm to be dug across their own path, but are paying for the digging of it. At the risk of being held a false prophet, I put these paragraphs on record, call the men of Allegheny county to attest it, and abide the result.

The commercial interests of this city suffered vastly during the war. Most of the shipping traffic except the coastwise, passed into the hands of foreigners. The effects are seen in the falling off in the population of the city and State. Efforts are made to palliate the inevitable inferences from the census by the assertion that the enumeration of 1860 was fraudulent and excessive; but there is no evidence to sustain this allegation. Besides the effects above mentioned, it is confessed that in the city and vicinity there are at least 200,000 inhabitants who are without adequate employment, and could be spared to great advantage.

New York is substantially a foreign city. A large majority of its voters are foreign-born. Many of these, alien or naturalized, are identified in all their feelings hopes and interests with this country. Not a few of them are men of high capacities and of wealth. But many of them are here as the agents of European bankers, shippers, manufacturers and merchants. Their interests are not American, but European. Their policy is the policy that suits their principles on the other side of the Atlantic. Indeed, they and their principals are necessarily one and indivisible. Still, there has been a development of manufacturing which affords compensations and which would surprise those who are not acquainted with the details of that branch of industry.

There has, moreover, been a vast increase of traffic here of various sorts. Colossal fortunes, and in great numbers, have been suddenly reared. There is an offensive display of wealth in luxurious living; but much of this display has a substantial basis. And, after all abatements, it must be said that New York sits a Queen on the American continent.

WM. LLOYD GARRISON, in his editorial valedictory, says he began the publication of the Liberator without a subscriber, and ends it without a farthing as the pecuniary result of the patronage extended to it during thirty-five years of unremitting labor.

GENERAL NEWS.

DR. RANDOLPH, formerly a noted spiritualist, says now, that after an experience of five years as a medium, it is his candid opinion that spiritualism is one-third imposture, one-third insanity and one-third diabolism; and that insanity is the usual fate of trance mediums.

AN almost incredible story is told of a telegraph operator in Washington, to the effect that he lately received two long despatches by two different instruments simultaneously, interpreted them both by sound, and wrote them out simultaneously as received, one with his right and one with his left hand.

THE fashionable and monetary circles of New York have a new scandal to gossip over. One of the leading brokers on Broad street, has forsaken wife, family, and business, and fled to Europe with the most notorious star of the demi monde.

A SPECIAL from Columbus, Ohio, to the Cincinnati Gazette, says: "General Sherman has written a private letter to a prominent gentleman now in this city, in which he takes strong ground against any interference in the Mexican imbroglio."

IT is reported that oil has been discovered on the premises of Fred. and Jacob Seidler in Hawley. We understand that a company has been organized to test the matter. If there is anything in it we shall refer to the matter again.—Honesdale (Pa.) Rep.

THE original draft of President Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation belongs to the New York State Library. It is partly in the handwriting of Mr. Lincoln, and partly in that of Mr. Seward, the quotations of law being printed.

MR. FREDERICK L. OLMSTEAD has been associated with Mr. Godkin in the editorial department of the Nation.

"AN American is only an Englishman rather more sharpened," says Sir Morton Peto, who has been able, during his Western tour, to see the point.

MISS SARAH BIRD, a young girl of Zanesville, committed suicide on Friday by taking arsenic. The usual motive was assigned for the deed.

FRACTIONAL CURRENCY.—All the old fractional currency is to be called in.

DR. KEYSER'S
Pectoral Syrup
CURES CONSUMPTION,
Cures Bronchitis,
CURES COLDS,
Cures Asthma
CURES
All Diseases of the Lungs.

I invite attention to some of the most extraordinary cures by my Pectoral Syrup.
They are at home, and any one who has any doubts can inquire of the persons who have been cured by it.
Attend to Your Colds.

A case of five years' standing cured by DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.

PITTSBURGH, January 11, 1860.
DR. KEYSER:—My wife has been afflicted with a bad cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which, for several years back, had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case I procured some of your PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP. I bought, the first time, a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself to a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this if you desire to do so.
WM. WILSON,
Alderman, Fifth Ward.

PITTSBURGH, November 13, 1858.
DR. KEYSER:—Although not an advocate of Patent Medicines, in general, it affords me pleasure indescribable to recommend your PECTORAL SYRUP. As a medicine it is well worthy the attention of any person who may in any manner be afflicted with coughs, colds and hoarseness of any kind, and for the peculiar qualifications for removing all that disagreeable sensation attending a severe cold.

I have been, more or less in my life, affected with the severest of colds and hoarseness. At times my throat would become so closed as to prevent my speaking above a whisper, and by taking a few doses of the above Syrup it would relieve me entirely.

In recommending this medicine, I must unhesitatingly say that it is the best remedy I ever found, purporting to cure the above, nor should any family be without this remedy for diseases so prevalent.
Yours, most respectfully,
EDWARD J. JONES,
Cashier Citizens' Deposit Bank.

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio, March 14, 1865.
I have used Dr. Keyser's Cough Syrup for a bad cough of several years standing, and can cheerfully say it is the best medicine for the same that I have ever taken.
J. W. PRICE.

COL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—DR. KEYSER—Dear Sir: Excuse the delay of my acknowledging the excellence of your Pectoral Cough Syrup sooner. I take great pleasure in saying that it is all you say it is. It knocked the noise out of my cough, and the worst one I was ever afflicted with. I have not used more than one-half of the bottle, and I can and do wish that all who are afflicted would give it as fair a trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "It is no quack medicine." I would not suffer another such an attack for any consideration, or at any cost. I am confident I can breathe more freely than I ever did. I shall always acknowledge a debt of gratitude for inventing so excellent a remedy. You are at liberty to use my name in this regard as you think proper.
E. F. PRATT,
Messenger Common Council, Pittsburgh, Pa.
N. B.—I am no stranger to my fellow-citizens, and all who entertain doubts can consult me personally.
E. F. P.

PITTSBURGH, April 24, 1857.
READ THE TRUTH.—DR. KEYSER:—I have a daughter who has taken several medicines for a bad cough without benefit, among them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I purchased from you a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, and before she had used half a bottle she was relieved. The second bottle cured her entirely of her cough.
JOHN DARIN,
Robinson street, Allegheny.

PITTSBURGH, December 31, 1853.
A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county. I had a cough and spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued eight months. I employed the best physicians in the country, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your Pectoral Cough Syrup, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from the coughing and spitting. I had despaired of ever getting well, and I think it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case.
JOHN C. LITTLE,
Witness: B. M. KERR. Peebles township.

PATTON TOWNSHIP, April 14, 1848.
A WONDERFUL CURE.—Some time ago an old neighbor of mine was very ill with a bad cough, which every one supposed to be consumption. His relatives told me that he had taken every remedy they heard of without benefit; his brother came to see him die, and all were confirmed in the belief that he could not live. I had about the third of a bottle of your Pectoral syrup, which I gave him, and it entirely cured him, to the astonishment of all. What makes the case more remarkable, is the extreme age of the man, he being about eighty years old. I have no doubt the Pectoral saved his life.
JOHN McGINNIS.

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP IN BLAIRSVILLE.—Please send me another supply of your valuable Pectoral Syrup. Almost everybody around us has the cold, and are enquiring for "Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup." We have sold sixteen bottles the past week, and are now entirely out. Mr. A. Alter and Mr. P. Maher, both of Blairsville, Pa., told us they would not be without it in their families. In fact, all who use it once want it again.
Yours, respectfully,
J. S. WATTERSON & SONS.
January 30, 1860.

ANOTHER NEW CERTIFICATE.—DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I had been troubled with a cough and cold for several weeks—so bad was it that I could not sleep. I had the advice and prescriptions from three of the best physicians in the city, whom I could name, but do not do so. I finally procured a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which cured me entirely.
(Signed) J. W. SIMONTON,
No. 246 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, Pa.
January 9th, 1860.

"STOP THAT COUGHING."—"How can I do it?" Go to Keyser's, on Wood street, and get a bottle of his Cough Pectoral, and if that don't cure you, your case must be desperate indeed." This is a specimen of the colloquy one hears every day in cold-catching periods of the year. And we can, from actual experiment, cheerfully concur in the adviser's admonition as above, for we have tried the "Pectoral," in a most stubborn case, with entire success. Near two weeks ago we went to Pittsburgh, with one of the most distressing, contrary, mulish, unsubduable coughs we ever experienced since our advent upon this mundane sphere. We coughed steadily and laboriously for one whole week, in hopes of tiring it out, but it was no go. In fact, it seemed rather to have improved by practice, and to have acquired strength, potency and distressibility by the operation. In this stage of the siege, we coughed our way to Keyser's, No. 140 Wood street, procured a fifty cent bottle of the "Pectoral," took it according to directions, and in forty-eight hours we were master of the field, the enemy having unconditionally surrendered, after a brief, but unequal conflict with so formidable an adversary as Keyser's famous Cough Pectoral.—Brownsville Clipper, Dec. 14, 1859.

GENERAL NEWS.

THE trial of the brigand chief Ciardullo, and several members of his band, took place at Salerno, in Naples, on the 10th of November, and on the 12th the wretches were all shot. The testimony developed horrors of crimes not unfamiliar to those acquainted with the history of brigandage, but such as we hesitate to recount here. Some of the witnesses against the robbers were men who had once been their prisoners, and who exposed in court the mutilations they had suffered: cropped ears, amputated fingers, and the like. Three women appeared against the brigands, who had killed their sons by throwing them upon the ground and dancing upon their abdomens, till the entrails burst forth. Other witnesses had seen women ravished by the whole band of robbers, and then put to death. Ciardullo alone questioned the testimony against himself and his fellows, who remained perfectly mute and impassible in the midst of the furious people. According to the Italian military law against brigandage, the robbers were shot in the back.

The Capital Punishment Commission in England has submitted to the Queen the following:

1. That the punishment of death be retained for all murders deliberately committed with express malice aforethought, such malice to be found as a fact by the jury.

2. That the punishment of death be also retained for all murders committed in, or with the view to, the perpetration, or escape after the perpetration, or attempt at perpetration of any of the following felonies: Murder, arson, rape, burglary, robbery or piracy.

3. That in all other cases of murder the punishments be penal servitude for life, or for any period not less than seven years, at the discretion of the court.

THE Springfield Republican speaks of the vagaries of an insane woman, evidently well educated and well reared, but coming from nobody knows where, who has been sorely vexing the lawyers and city authorities of late. The other day she called at Governor Trask's, and introduced herself. "Is this Mr. Trask?" "Yes, Madam." "Governor Trask?" "At your service," with a low bow. "I am Satan, sir." "What, Madam?" "Satan. I am Satan, and having more business just now than I can well attend to, and hearing that, since the late election, you were at leisure, I called to enlist your aid." "Y-e-s, Madam—I understand—I think I am your man." And the Governor helped her—to board and lodgings in the insane asylum at Northampton, where she now remains.

ALL the eighth of January celebrations bear marks of unity of aim and common engineering. As the Albany Argus naively remarks, "it was noticeable in all, that the name of Andrew Johnson was associated with that of Andrew Jackson, and the former was regarded as the exponent of the views and principles of the latter." And quite as evident was the attempt to rally the scattered forces of the old Jackson democracy, with the hope that President Johnson may be induced to accept their support against the party that elected him. Praise of Andrew Johnson was everywhere coupled with denunciations of Congress and the republican party. The trick is a very cute one, but neither the country nor the President are so jolly green as to be caught by it.—Springfield Republican.

A SENSATION IN WALL STREET.—The business community in New York, on Thursday, was shocked by the report that a Wall street broker, who had been engaged in brokerage transactions for many years past, had absconded to Europe, having previously drawn from the bank, a sum of seventeen thousand dollars, the property of the firm of which he was a member. The firm suspended payment at once, but it is stated that the interruption of business will only be temporary. Rumors found credence that the missing broker had fled to Europe and forsaken his wife and family for the purpose of joining a young actress, who left the country a few days previous; but, as yet, these stories rest on no positive foundation.—N. Y. Herald.

IN a town in Connecticut resides a man who made a fortune in the milk business, by not giving full measure; as he grew rich he thought he would change his occupation to something more respectable, and accordingly bought a grist mill. In conversation with his wife, he said he did not feel right about the cheating he had practiced in the milk business, and wished some way could be devised whereby he could repay in the grist-mill what he had cheated in the other. At last they settled on the following plan, which was to have the measure which they took toll with as much too large as the milk measure was too small.

A FUNNY scene occurred in the streets of Manchester, England, last month. The keepers of an elephant belonging to a menagerie were taking the animal through one of the public thoroughfares at one o'clock in the morning, when the passers-by became frightened at the unusual spectacle, and the police attempted to arrest the elephant. His keepers, however, stimulated him to resistance, and the elephant's trunk proved more than a match for the clubs of the officers. He struck the men, and they fled for their lives.

FRIDAY'S Baltimore Sun says—A large number of ladies and gentlemen left this city on Wednesday evening, by the Northern Central Railway, for Lancaster, Pa., in order to be present at the wedding of Miss Harriet Lane, niece of ex-President Buchanan, who was yesterday united in wedlock to Mr. Henry E. Johnston, of this city. The cerimony took place at Wheatland, the residence of Mr. Buchanan, and the bridal party at once started on a northern tour.

DR. EYSTER, while attempting to cross the river at Sunbury, Pa., on Sunday last, made a narrow escape. The wind and cold blinded him, and he stepped into an air hole covered with thin ice. His cries attracted some persons from the shore, who hastened to him with a rope, which was thrown to him, but he was so much paralysed that he could neither hold it nor tie it around him, but seized it with his teeth, and in this way was rescued from a watery grave.

AT the time of the death of the late Emperor Nicholas, the celebrated great bell "Reni" suspended in the tower of St. Iwan, in the Kremlin, (probably the largest bell in the world, weighing no less than 100,000 pounds), while being tolled for the Czar, fell and broke through three separate stories of vaults, killing five persons on the spot. After three months incessant labor it was swung again.

AN examination into the condition of the steam boilers in New York city reveals the fact that out of 4,207 boilers 130 were found to be defective. In other words, about three per cent. of the stationary boilers in that city are in an explosive condition, and ready to give sensational head-lines to the morning papers, followed by heart-rending details of death by scalding, bruising and burning.

DEPUTATIONS from the National Wool-Growers' and also from the Woolen Manufacturers' Association are now in our city, charged with the duty of conferring and, if practicable, concurring as to such modifications of our present tariff on wool and woolens as they may deem just and beneficent. We trust that their accord may be unanimous and hearty.—New York Tribune.

THE Pall Mall Gazette publishes the following from Rome: "It is the custom at Rome for the cardinals to write every year to the Catholic emperors and kings, to offer the compliments and congratulations suggested by the return of Christmas and the opening of a new year. The Pope has forbidden the members of the Sacred College to pay this mark of respect to the Emperor of Mexico."

AT a place called Ponte de l'Archetto, not far from Milan, a young woman engaged to be married was recently seized in the fields near home by two men, who cut off her luxuriant hair with a pair of shears, after which they departed, saying "Now go and marry the man you have chosen." The act is supposed to have been inspired by jealousy.

MISS DICKINSON lectured at Rondout, N. Y., on Saturday evening, and on Monday, the ice on the Hudson being too weak to bear a horse, she was drawn over to Rhinebeck in a sleigh by three stout river men, who had several times great difficulty in preventing the vehicle from being overturned by the tremendous northwest wind.

MR. VALLANDIGHAM says that while the Democratic party is sure to come into power again, it will not be "through President Johnson, or by reason of anything he may chance to do, or to leave undone. That hope expired within two weeks from his inauguration."

A HYPOCONDRIAC of rank and fortune in Ireland fancies one of his legs of one religion, and the other of another. He frequently puts one of his unfortunate limbs outside the bed-clothes in cold weather, to punish it for its religious errors.

In those two weeks the President made a great many speeches, all to the effect that treason must be made odious. How could the Democrats hope anything from him after that?—Chicago Republican.

A LETTER from Rio Janeiro, speaking of Southern immigration to Brazil, says one thing is certain—namely, that whoever goes there must make up his mind to work, for slavery is doomed there.

UNIMPAIRED.—The pirate Semmes has written a letter, in which he declares that his "sense of manhood remains unimpaired." Quite likely: he hasn't impaired it by use, certainly.

Peace in India.

The Bhootan war in India is ended. On the 11th of November, a treaty of "perpetual peace" was signed at Buxa. The eighteen Dooars are ceded to the British power; all kidnapped persons are to be restored; the treaty signed under compulsion by Mr. Eden is to be returned, and a full apology made to him. The supreme government agrees to pay an annual subsidy of twenty-five thousand rupees for the territories ceded, and that sum is to be permanently increased to fifty thousand rupees when the Bhootanese have proved their disposition to refrain from the annoyances which formed the pretext of the war. The first payment of the subsidy is withheld until Toungso Penlow shall return the two guns taken at Dewangiri. Stipulations are also made in reference to free transit and traffic between Bengal and Bhootan. Owing to the signing of the treaty, the extensive preparations made by the English for a new campaign have been stopped.

The Cotton Crop of Illinois.

The remarkable increase within four years in the shipments of cotton from points in Southern Illinois is shown from the fact that the shipments from nine of the stations on the Illinois Central Railroad amounted in 1862 to 6,770 pounds, and in 1865 to 1,581,400 pounds. The following figures show the constant and rapid increase:

Year.	Pounds.
1862..........	6,770
1863..........	91,597
1864..........	384,480
1865..........	1,581,400

The yield for 1865 is equal to three thousand bales, worth over half a million of dollars.

PROPOSALS.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

OFFICE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD,
WASHINGTON CITY, January 6, 1866.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at this office until 1 o'clock P. M., on FRIDAY, the 9th day of February, 1866, for supplying the Light-House Establishment with sixty thousand gallons of the best quality pure winter-strained OIL, either Lard or Sperm, to be divided into four lots, and to be delivered at the times undermentioned, alongside of the Government supply-vessels, or at the warehouse or other place of deposit, to be designated by the Inspecting Officer or other authorized agent of the Light-house Board, in strong, tight, iron-bound, well-made casks, suitable for shipping, in good order, of a capacity, each, of from fifty to eighty gallons—not to exceed the latter. The oil may be delivered at Boston or New York, at the option of the bidders.

The place of delivery in each case must be distinctly stated in the bids, and will be embraced in the contracts.

The four lots will be delivered as follows, viz:

Lot No. 1. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons oil on the 2d day of April, 1866, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 2. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons oil on the 16th day of April, 1866, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 3. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons oil on the 1st day of June, 1866, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Lot No. 4. Fifteen thousand (15,000) gallons oil on the 1st day of August, 1866, or as soon thereafter as the proper tests and gauging can be completed.

Separate proposals will be received at the same time for 5,000 gallons of Colza or Lard Oil, to be delivered as above stipulated, at Detroit, Mich., on the 1st day of May, 1866.

No bid will be considered unless from a manufacturer of the article.

No part of the oil proposed for and to be embraced in the contracts under this advertisement will be accepted, received, or paid for, until it shall have been proved, to the entire satisfaction of the person or persons charged with its examination, test, and inspection, to be of the best quality pure winter-strained oil, and free from mixture with other or inferior oils and adulterations.

The usual means for determining the character and quality of the sperm oil will be employed, viz: specific gravity, burning, the amount of residuum, and any other proper tests to arrive at correct conclusions that may be deemed necessary.

The lard oil will be subjected to special tests, and will be rejected unless found to be, in regard to burning and fluidity under reduction of temperature, and in every other respect, equal to that of the standard adopted by the Board, of which a sample will be furnished on application to the Light-house Engineer at Boston, Mass.

The casks must be gauged under the direction and personal supervision of the inspecting officer, by a custom-house or other legally authorized and sworn gauger, according to the United States standard, and must be marked and accepted before they are removed from the cellar or warehouse of the contractor. The temperature of the oil will be accurately noted, and the measurements reduced to the standard temperature of 60 deg. Fahrenheit by tables prepared for the purpose.

Proposals will be received and considered for each lot separately, or for all of the lots, at the option of the bidder; but no bid will be considered for a less quantity than that specified as one lot, to be delivered at one time and place. Each bidder must state explicitly, written out in full, the kind of oil offered, (whether sperm, lard or colza;) the rate per gallon, the number of the lot or lots bid for, and the place of delivery, conforming to this advertisement.

Bids submitted by different members of the same firm or copartnership will not be considered.

The Light-house Board, under the authority of the Department, reserves the right to reject any bid, although it may be the lowest, for other considerations than the price.

No bid will be considered for any other kind or description of oil than those specially called for in this advertisement.

A bond, with security to the satisfaction of the Department, in a penalty equal to one-fourth of the amount of each contract made under these proposals, will be required of each contractor, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract, to be executed within ten days after the acceptance of the bid.

Each offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, and known to the department as such, or certified by a United States district judge, attorney, navy agent, or collector of the customs, to the effect that, if the bid be accepted, the bidder will duly execute a contract in good faith, according to the provisions and terms of this advertisement, within ten days after acceptance; and that in case the said party offering shall fail to enter into the contract as aforesaid, he or they guarantee to make good the difference between the offer of the said party and the next lowest bidder. All bids must be sealed and endorsed "Proposals for Oil for Light-houses," and then placed in another envelope, and directed, prepaid, to the Secretary of the Light-house Board, Washington City.

All bids will be opened publicly, at the hour and on the day specified.

Payments will be made for the several lots of oil within thirty days after they shall have been received by the United States.

By order of the Light-house Board.
ANDREW A. HARWOOD,
Secretary.

☞ RETROUVEY'S TURKISH BANDOLENIAN HAIR TONIC.

THE DRESSING AND RESTORER OF THE AGE.

TURKISH BANDOLENIAN.

RETROUVEY'S TURKISH BANDOLENIAN. What can be more acceptable than anything that will beautify? that will restore nature's decay by stopping the hair from falling out, restoring its natural color, making it to grow in luxuriance and beauty, assist in putting it up according to the present style and fashion and keep it in place? This Retrouvey's Turkish Bandolenian Hair Tonic will do, and for proof we refer you to any person who has tried it. It is acknowledged to be the beautifier of the age, the only Hair Tonic and Restorer worthy of the name. In Turkey, in France, in England, in America—everywhere where the "Bandolenian" is known—it is pronounced the ne plus ultra of Hair Preparations. Remember, it is free from all metallic poisons that are contained in most Hair Colors and dressings. It is the extract of many flowers and herbs, beautifully put up, an ornament to the toilet.

☞ AYER'S AGUE CURE, for the speedy cure of Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

Fever and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arises from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

We wish it understood that the price of our Morning and Evening Editions sold by boys on the street, or at the counter, is THREE CENTS PER COPY. When more is demanded, it is imposition.

Bible Anniversary—Forty-Eighth Anniversary of the Young Mens' Bible Society, of Pittsburgh.—The forty-eighth anniversary of this Society was held in the First Methodist Church, Fifth street, last evening at 7 o'clock. Notwithstanding the rain, sleet and snow that fell during the evening, rendering the streets almost impassable, there was quite a large audience in attendance, and the exercises were of quite an entertaining character.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. R. H. Davis, President, who made a few pertinent remarks, during which he stated that the Society had been organized in 1818, and that at its first meeting in the old Court House, in this city, Mr. Samuel Thompson presided, and the meeting was addressed by Hon. Harmer Denny. He stated that the object of the Society then, as now, was to circulate the Holy Scriptures without comment.

Rev. Wm. B. Watkins then ascended the pulpit, and read the 19th Psalm and the latter part of the 3rd chapter of 2nd Timothy.

Following Rev. Joseph R. Kerr offered up a most impressive petition to the Throne of Divine Grace, which was listened to with marked and serious attention.

The Congregation next joined in singing the hundredth Psalm:

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice,
Him serve with mirth, his praise forth tell,
Come ye before him and rejoice.

The next business in order was the reading of the Corresponding Secretary's report, which we give below in full.

ANNUAL REPORT.

On the 18th of March, 1816, the act was passed erecting Pittsburgh into a city and body corporate. One year later, the "Young Men's Bible Society of the City of Pittsburgh," was organized. We this evening celebrate its 48th anniversary. It would be pleasant, and perhaps profitable, to recall the honored names of those who assisted at that organization, to draw the contrast between then and now, and to take rapid note of the changes political, social and religious, that have taken place during the years which have intervened.

The Pittsburgh of 1817 would appear like a country village in comparison with the Pittsburgh of 1866. Then, the population hemmed in by narrow limits, numbered scarcely ten thousand, now the quiet country side has become the busy mart of trade, and within hearing of our city church bells, there are more than one hundred thousand people. The churches then were few in number, and weak in resources, now, there is no lack of means, for the weak half dozen represented at our first anniversary, has grown into more than half a hundred, with nearly as many more in the Allegheny Society. But the retrospect will find more fitting place when we celebrate our jubilee year, and a careful history of our labors for half a century is presented to the public.

For the present a brief summary of what has been accomplished, during the past year, will we trust, give satisfactory evidence that the noble purposes of the founders of the society have not been forgotten or neglected.

Early in the year, the Executive Committee directed the Agent to begin a thorough canvass of the city and borough adjacent. We have no record of the number of visits made, they would number thousands, as of the many interesting incidents that daily fell under his notice. He has distributed, during the year, nearly 800 copies of the Scriptures, either wholly without charge or at a merely nominal cost. In addition to this work of seeking out, and supplying the needs of those who are perishing for lack of knowledge, which, we beg our friends to understand is the main work and first duty of our agent, he has collected the sum of $2,885.35 in aid of the cause.

Rev. W. W. Eells, Secretary of the Pennsylvania Bible Society for the Western part of the State, learning that our Agent would probably be engaged in the city and suburbs throughout the year, kindly offered to put an agent into the country districts. This agent, Mr. David Clark, proved to be a most valuable man, and our Society is greatly indebted to Mr. Eells. During three brief summer months he made constant distribution of the Word of Life, and paid into the Society the sum of $910, free of all expense, for salary or other outfit. The Librarian's Report will show that we have sold and given away during the year 4,350 copies of the Holy Scriptures, in whole or part.

From the Treasurer's report, we condense the following items:

Cash on hand Jan. 1st, 1865	$ 740 22	Don. Pa. B'e S'y	$ 1,210
Rec. all sources	4,841 99	Paid for Bibles to Pa. Bible S'y	1,489 07
		Paid Mrs. J. Culbertson	200
		P'd Agents Salary, and other exp	1,018 04
		Cash balance Jan. 1st, 1866	1,665 10
	$5,582 21		$5,582 21

It will be seen that our receipts are larger than those of any year since the Society was organized. While we are devoutly thankful to God that such is the case, we cannot forbear placing alongside the meager increase, these two facts, and leave them for your prayerful consideration. To the above sum, over sixty large and wealthy congregations have contributed, many of them making their only contribution in aid of the special work of distributing the Bible, through this Society. The other fact is equally sad, and far more fearful. Infidelity, Sabbath breaking, intemperance, hatred of the Bible, denial of its truth, and disregard of its sanctions, are increasing on every hand. Rationalism of every type, from the blankest Atheism to the most refined Liberalism, with its sensuous literature, and its polite scorn of the "good old ways," is coming upon us from European shores, like a vast army of invasion. Where shall we find a weapon with which we may go out against so many foes, and so dangerous? In the "Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God." The hosts of Amalek shall never prevail against this good old Family Bible—your father's bible," wet with his tears; sacred with his prayers—the bible Christ loved, and read, and quoted, sacred with his tears also, "Christ's Bible."

Rev. J. S. Dickinson delivered the leading address of the evening. He inculcated the necessity of giving new impetus to the great work of circulation the scriptures. It was no time now to congratulate ourselves on what we had already accomplished, but to resolve to go on to new victories. This was a Bible Society, and a home one, and it was our duty to support the banner of the Bible, not only by our prayers and good wishes, but by our god-hiven means. The speaker referred to the field now opened for sending the Gospel to the Freedman. We had lifted; or were about doing so, the seal of blindness and ignorance from the colored man, and it now became our duty to see that he was lifted out of the mire of slavery and degredation into the light and freedom of the Gospel.

Following the Congregation united in singing part of the 119th Psalm:

Blessed are they that undefiled,
And straight are in the way;
Who in the Lord's most holy law
Do walk, and do not stray.

Rev. R. D. Moore followed in a most eloquent address to which no mere outline would do justice. This gentleman has been but a short time in our city, but is fast taking rank among our first pulpit orators and zealous, practical ministers.

Mr. Moore was followed in a brief address by Rev. Mr. Eells, after which, on motion of Mr. S. Morrow, the reports of Secretary, Treasurer and Librarian were adopted.

On motion of Rev. W. H. Kincaid a vote of thanks were tendered to the speakers of the evening, and the Trustees of the First M. E. Church.

A resolution was passed changing the annual meeting of the Society from the third Monday in January, to the last Monday of April in each year.

The newly elected Board will meet on the last Thursday of this month in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian Church, to elect officers for the ensuing year.

After the congregation had joined in singing the Doxology commencing

O give ye praise unto the Lord,
Ye nations all that be:
Likewise, ye people all, accord
His name to magnify.

Rev. John Cowl pronounced a benediction, and the audience dispersed, much edified by the evening's exercises.

The Finding of the Body at Fort McKee—Suspicion of Foul Play.

In yesterday's paper we alluded to the fact that the dead body of an unknown man had been found at Fort McKee, on the hill north of Allegheny, and that Coroner Clawson had gone over to investigate the matter. At first it was supposed that the man had been foully dealt with, as there were clots of blood discovered at a considerable distance from where the body lay, a cut over the right eye and other slight marks of violence. One of his boots was also found sticking in a fence two hundred and fifty feet distant. The body was conveyed to the Mayor's office, when it was finally identified as that of Captain John M'Clay, a returned soldier, and a well known resident of Allegheny. The deceased was generally known in Allegheny as Johny Gebhart, having been adopted while a mere lad, and raised by John Gebhart, deceased. It appears that he had been "on a spree" for several days, and on Saturday night, about eleven o'clock, went to the house of his mother, Mrs. Gebhart, No. 71 Beaver street, and rapped at the door. A girl who was up at the time, knowing that he was in liquor, hesitated about letting him in, and while she was consulting with Mrs. Gebhart about the matter, he went away. Nothing more was known of him until his body was found, as stated. How he got so far away it is difficult to imagine, but the probability is that he did not know where he was going or what he was about. The inquest has been adjourned until to-day, when the Coroner will endeavor to ascertain all the facts in regard to the affair. It is not likely, however, that he was foully dealt with, and the probability seems to be that he fell into the rifle pit where his body was found, and was so badly stunned that he was unable to help himself and was frozen to death.

A Queer Case.

Officers Kemp and Wilmot yesterday arrested two women by the name of Annie Hentz and Magdalina Shied on oath of Peter Glass, on charge of conspiracy. The case is rather a singular one. It appears that Peter Glass seduced Frances Lawfer under promise of marriage. Frances, in order to bring about the marriage, put on appearances of pregnancy, by artificial appliances, and with the aid of Annie Hentz and Magdalina Schied frightened Peter into marriage. Peter, as a matter of course soon found out the deception, and left his lawful spouse. Frances now sues her husband for desertion, and Peter, prays the arrest of the two elderly ladies, Madames Hentz and Schied for conspiracy, in entrapping him into the marriage. The ladies were held to bail for their appearance on Monday next at two o'clock, in the sum of five hundred dollars each.

IN WANT OF FUNDS.—The Neptune Fire Company are sadly in want of funds, the present appropriations not meeting their necessities. Messrs. Stephen A. Veter, Nathan Jones, and William Burke, Jr., are duly authorized to call upon the citizens and insurance companies generally for donations. The Neptune is among the most efficient in the city, and we trust their appeal for aid will be promptly responded to by our citizens.

Election of Directors.—The Stockholder of the Pittsburgh and Steubenville railroad, at their recent election, elected the following Directors for the ensuing year:

Isaac Jones, R. F. Smith, W. Philips, M. B. Brown, M. O'Hara, W. S. Haven, N. Holms, Josh Rhodes, M. K. Moorhead, A. S. Nicholson, J. Schoonmaker, James Laughlin, J. Murray Clark.

The 26th Anniversary of the Allegheny Bible Society will be held this, Tuesday evening, January 16th, in the Second United Presbyterian Church—Rev. Doctor Clark's. Addresses will be delivered by the Rev. J. Herr and Rev. J. G. Goettman. All are invited to attend. Exercises to commence at 7 o'clock.

Allegheny City Officers—The Caucus Nominations.

The Republican members of Allegheny Councils held a caucus meeting last evening, and made the following nominations:

Controller—R. B. Francis.
Treasurer—D. Macferron.
Street Commissioner—Thos. Megraw.
Superintendent of Water Works—Wm. D. Faulkner.
Clerk of Markets—Duncan Dallas.
Weigh Master at Diamond Scales—John S. Edgar.
Weigh Master at Second Ward Scales—Wm. F. Anderson.
Wharf Master—George Hutchison.
Recording Regulator—Wm. McHendry.
Assistant Regulator—John McHendry.
Salt Inspector—Geo. Hutchison.
Measurer of Wood and Bark—George Hutchison.
Clerk to Committees—Robert Dillworth.
City Solicitor—M. M. Woodward, Esq.
Assessor of City Taxes—Mathias Magonnigle.
Assessor of Water Rents—A. Davis.
Board Measurers.—First Ward, C. F. Ingham; Second Ward, Wm. Murdock; Third Ward, Samuel W. McGinniss; Fourth Ward, Andrew Davidson.
Official Papers, (English)—Gazette and Dispatch; (German,)—Freiheit's Freund.

As will be seen by the above, several changes have been made. In the first place, A. Hobson, Esq., who has long and ably filled the office of Street Commissioner, gives place to Mr. Thos. Megraw, a disabled soldier. It is due to Mr. Hobson to say that he did not enter the contest against Mr. Megraw, preferring to give him a fair field so far as he was concerned. Next in order we find that Mr. R. R. Ray has been superseded as Assistant Regulator by Mr. John McHendry, also a soldier. Mr. Robert Dilworth, who was elected Clerk of Common Council, over Mr. Magonnigle, has also been nominated as clerk to committees, in place of Mr. M'Connigle. Mr. W. Woodward, Esq., has received the nomination for City Solicitor, in place of S. Schoyer, Esq., who declined a contest. Mr. Magonnigle was chosen Assessor of City Taxes, instead of Mr. Ray. The appointment of Mr. Hutchinson as Wharf Master, Salt Inspector, &c., is also new.

The reappointment of R. B. Francis, Esq., as City Controller, is a just and fitting indorsement of his course since assuming the duties of his responsible position. He has, since taking charge of the office, made rapid progress towards systematizing the business, and in a short time will have everything in complete working order. He is a careful, competent and pains-taking officer, and we are pleased to note his continuance in office.

D. Macferron, Esq., has also been continued as City Treasurer, and, so long as he enjoys the unlimited confidence of the entire community, as he has heretofore done, he will doubtless remain in undisturbed possession of the office. He is a tried and faithful servant, and it would be difficult to find a better man for the position.

The other gentlemen on the list have the satisfaction of knowing that their past services are duly appreciated, and we congratulate them on their re-appointment.

The new officials are gentlemen of worth and character, and we hope they may find their positions pleasant, and that they may be able to discharge their duties with credit to themselves and satisfaction to the public.

Councils will meet in joint session this evening, for the purpose of ratifying the above appointments.

Amusements.

THEATRE—"WORKMEN OF THE WORLD."—This great Drama with Matilda Heron in the principal character, we might say is more than double attraction at this legitimate place of amusement and created quite a furore, taking into consideration that the night was the most inclement of the season every seat was occupied. Matilda Heron has really gained fresh laurels by her personation of Martha. Her scene in the Machine Shop where she is thrown into the machinery by her drunken husband, was one of the most thrilling stage effects we ever witnessed. In connection with this article we must certainly compliment Mr. Charles Crosby, the stage carpenter, for the masterly manner in which he has laboured in the production of this play. The engine in full working order is produced with that effect as to defy competition. He deserves great credit for his efforts. The play will be repeated this evening.

OPERA HOUSE—Joe Sefton's benefit was a success. The house was overcrowded and hundreds were turned from the door. To-night will be presented the terrible, terrific play of Mazeppa, or the hero of the untamed horse in which will be presented some wonderful and striking scenes, particularly the untamed horse. Frank Drew, who has "drew" a very heavy audience since his appearance will also give the life of an actress."

Manchester Passenger Railway.—At a meeting of the Stockholders of the Pittsburgh and Manchester Passenger Railway held yesterday afternoon the following Directors were elected: J. A. Hutchinson, Captain J. T. Stockdale, Capt. Gilmore, Alex Speer and A. S. Bell. Mr. Bell is the only member of the old Board re-elected.

Key Found.—A large brass master key was found a few days since which the owner may reclaim by calling on James Wiggins, at the El Dorado Saloon, Fifth street.

FROM YESTERDAY'S EVENING GAZETTE.

Inequality of Taxation.

At the meeting of the Board of Trade, held on Saturday, Mr. C. Yeager called attention to the fact that merchants were required to pay a tax of two and a quarter mills upon their sales, to assist in paying the railroad indebtedness of the city, while property and incomes were not taxed for that object. In some portions of the city, rents had increased from five and eight hundred dollars to three and four thousand dollars, yet the owners of the property were not called upon to pay one mill of this tax. Persons whose incomes were thirty thousand dollars per annum were also exempt from it. The tax was unequal and unjust, and some action should be taken by the Board of Trade in the matter. He felt satisfied that if it was carried to the Supreme Court, it would be decided that that the tax was unconstitutional.

Mr. Graff agreed with Mr. Yeager that the tax was unjust. He was willing to bear his share of the tax, but wanted others to do the same.

Mr. Ward knew the tax was onerous, and was willing to do all in his power to have it equally divided.

Mr. Little moved that a committee of five be appointed to inquire into the matter, and report at the next meeting of the Board of Trade. The motion passed unanimously, when the chair appointed the following committee: Messrs. Wm. Little, Alex. McIlwaine, Wm. M. Gormly, C. Yeager and J. McCrickert.

Herman, the Burglar.

The arrest of this man turns out to have been more important than at first supposed. His connection with the Douglas robbery, and the facility with which he made way with the goods, prove him to have been an expert thief, but it now appears that he was engaged in other burglaries in this city. Mr. William Digby, clothier, on Smithfield street, whose store was robbed on the night of the 27th of December, called at the Mayor's office to-day, and identified the pantaloons and vest worn by Herman, as having been stolen from his store. He has no doubt been loitering in this vicinity for some time, and has probably had a hand in most of the burglaries lately committed here. Four overcoats of the value of one hundred and sixty dollars, and a lot of cassimeres, of the value of one hundred and twenty dollars, were stolen from Mr. Digby at the same time, and have not yet been recovered. Herman doubtless has accomplices here, and the police are making every effort to learn something of his history and antecedents. His name is supposed to be Conno., and it is said that he has been before our Criminal Court once or twice already. He is in a pretty tight box just now, and stands an excellent chance for a prolonged term in the penitentiary.

The Case of Mrs. Grinder.

Mrs. Grinder is quite ill, apparently suffering from great mental depression and nervous prostration. There is a rumor rife in the community to-day that she is to be respited; it being stated that the Hon. Eli Slifer, Secretary of the Commonwealth, has the power to grant a respite, being provided with the necessary document for that purpose, by Governor Curtin, previous to his departure for Cuba. We failed to trace this rumor to any authentic source, and give it for what it is worth. It is also rumored that Dr. Kirkbride, of Philadelphia, Dr. Corwin of Harrisburg, and Dr. Reed of Dixmont, are to be appointed to inquire into her condition, it being alleged that she is a monomaniac. We shall probably have some definite information, in regard to these matters, in a day or two. Whatever is done must be done quickly, as the death warrant calls for her execution on Friday next.

Arrangements for a Daily 'Change.

A meeting of the Board of Trade was held on Saturday afternoon, to take measures for the establishment of a daily 'Change. On motion of Mr. John Shipton, the President was authorized to subscribe for a number of commercial papers, east and west, and arrange for two telegraphic dispatches daily—one from the East and one from Chicago; also, that the rooms of the Board be kept open daily, from half-past eleven until one o'clock. Messrs. John Shipton, J. Graff and Wm. Little were appointed to make arrangements for telegraphic dispatches. It was arranged to have daily quotations of gold, U. S. 7-30's and 5-20's, flour, grain, whisky, pork, coffee, tea, sugar, hides, domestic dried fruits, butter, cheese, wool, oil and dry goods. On motion, Messrs. W. W. Ward, C. Yeager and Philip Reymer were appointed a committee to make arrangements for the opening of the 'Change.

Murder of a Former Pittsburgher.—Henry H. Dunne, Superintendent of the New York and Schuylkill Coal Company, was brutally murdered by three men a few nights ago, while on his way home to Pottsville. The murder was committed on the public highway about two miles from Pottsville. Mr. Dunne was formerly a well known and respected citizen of this city, being a member of the late firm of William Daly & Co. He was about thirty-five years of age, and leaves four orphan children to mourn his loss, his wife having died some months ago. Five thousand dollars are offered by the authorities for the arrest of his murderers, who are unknown.

Another Theatre.—We see it stated that Ettie Henderson, wife of Manager Henderson, has leased the new theatre now being erected on the site of the old Atheneum, which is to be fitted up in splendid style and opened about the first of May as a first class theatre. The new theatre is to be styled The Academy of Music, and will have capacity to seat fifteen hundred persons. An excellent company is now being engaged, and the Academy is expected to open under the most flattering auspices. Mr. Henderson will continue to manage the Pittsburgh theatre, his wife assuming entire control of the new establishment.

Made a Citizen.—John Bender, a subject of the Grand Duke of Baden, was made a citizen of the United States this morning in the United States District Court, through the kindly aid of Stephen C. McCandless, Esq., Clerk of the Court.

Outrageous Assault.

On Saturday night, about ten o'clock, as a resident of Allegheny was walking up Federal street, near the corner of Water, he was accosted by a man who charged him with having "sold" one of the candidates for the Mayoralty in Allegheny. The party addressed knew the individual who accosted him, and the only reply he made was: "Well, what's the price of putty?" Saying this he passed on, closely followed by the individual who seemed so much dissatisfied with his political course. On reaching his house, and before he had entered, a boulder weighing some two pounds was hurled at his head, but fortunately missed the mark. The door of the house being locked, the man had to seek refuge in the office of a livery stable near by. The assailants were joined by three others, and their object was to beat and abuse the party against whom they are supposed to hold a grudge, growing out of an entirely different matter from politics, which was made a pretext for picking a quarrel. The party assailed at first determined to use a revolver, but not wishing to shed blood if he could avoid it, he sought refuge as stated. His assailants are known, and it is his intention to have them arrested and held to answer for their cowardly conduct.

United States District Court.—TUESDAY January 16.—Court met this morning at ten o'clock, Judge Wilson and McCandless on the bench. The list of grand and petit jurors was called, but there not being a quorum of the former present, of course the Court could not declare its usual charge, nor could any business be prepared, and an adjournment was had until this morning, when it is probable the absentees will be in attendance.

Removed to Wheeling.—Graham Martin, who was arrested for defrauding the Citizens National Bank of Wheeling out of $2,000, was removed to that place to-day, on a requisition from Governor Boreman. Martin formerly resided in Butler county, and is respectably connected there.

Assault and Battery.—A man named Ward appeared before Mayor Morrison this forenoon, charged with assault and battery, on oath of Wm. Deeny. It appearing that Ward, together with a number of others, attacked the prosecutor in the Diamond on Saturday night, he was held to answer the charge.

Allegheny Mayor's Office.—The Allegheny tombs had not a single occupant this morning, order having reigned supreme during yesterday and last night. There was not a single case before any of the Aldermen. This speaks well for the citizens of our sister city.

Beadle's Publications.—We are indebted to Beadle & Co., for copies of Beadle's Dime Year Book and Almanac, and Gen. Grant's Report. The Year Book and Almanac is full of matter interesting for reference. Published by Beadle & Co., New York.

Found Dead.—The body of an unknown man was found to-day, at Fort McKee, and Coroner Clawson has been summoned to hold an inquest. The man is supposed to have been frozen to death.

Ralston Oil	—	2 00
Pittsburgh & New York Oil	—	1 00

There was nothing done in our stock market to-day that we could hear of worthy of special notice. The demand for our local stocks, excepting Bank shares, continue very light, and there were no sales reported. There is still some inquiry for Bank stocks but the extreme views of holders has a tendency to restrict operations. Gold remains without decided change, opening in New York at 139¼, and closing at noon at 139⅞.

—A correspondent writing to the New York Evening Post in reference to compound interest notes, says:

In the summer of 1861 I sent to the Secretary of the Treasury a sketch of a compound interest note, having on its back a table showing the dates at which its value would be 1.01, 1.02, etc., and expressed my belief that such notes would be hoarded, and would therefore have less effect to enflate the currency than notes which pay no interest; and that the poor could make the same use of them that the rich make of large bonds. But to render such notes most useful, they should made to circulate at their value on the date of payment; and this they would do, if the government would, whenever not seriously inconvenient, receive them for dues, and pay them out, at the value shown by the table on the back. In this case the holders would draw interest while they held them, and no longer.

The legal-tender feature I think ought not to have been introduced, even under the pressure of the war; and certainly ought not now to be continued. Divested of this feature, they would be constitutional; and, therefore, expedient for the government to issue.

Since it appears that the idea of compound interest notes is to a great extent approved, I feel encouraged to ask attention to the view that they may become an interest-paying currency; that is, they may serve both for investment and currency.

I believe I was several months before Mr. Wainwright; and, so far as I know, the first to suggest this kind of currency. J. K. FISHER.

—The following is the bill relating to bonded goods, passed by the House of Representatives on Friday last:

"SECTION 1. That on and after the passage of this act, until the first day of April, 1866, any goods, wares or merchandise under bond in any public or private bonded warehouse, upon which the duties are unpaid, may be withdrawn for consumption and the bonds cancelled on payment of the duties and charges prescribed by law; and any bond in any public or private bonded warehouse on and after the first day of April aforesaid, and all goods, wares or merchandise remaining in warehouse under bond on said first day of April may be withdrawn for consumption within one year from the date of original importation of payment of the duties and charges to which they may be subject by law at the time of such withdrawal. After the expiration of one year from the date of original importation, and until the expiration of the years from said date any goods, wares or merchandise in bond as aforesaid may be withdrawn for consumption on payment of the duties assessed on the original entry and charges and additional duty of ten per centum of the amount of such assessed duties and charges.

SEC. 2. That neither this nor any other act shall operate to prevent the exportation of bonded goods, wares and merchandise from warehouse within three years from the date of original importation, nor their transportation in bond from the port into which they were originally imported, to any other port or ports for the purpose of exportation; and all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed."

"It seems to be pretty generally taken for granted that another long loan will be authorized for the purpose of enabling the Secretary of the Treasury to effect the conversion of the short bonds, instead of paying them as they become due. The short loans amount to an aggregate of nearly $1,200,000,000 as follows: Six per cent bonds (old) due in 1867 and 1868, $18,3235,92; 4, 5 and 6 per cent Temporary Loan, $97,257,194; Certificates of Indebtedness, $60,667,000; 1 and 2 year 5 per cent notes, $8,536,000; 3 yer 7-30 notes, $830,000,000. The conversion of all these into a long 6 per cent gold loan, would undoubtedly exert a good influence upon the finances of the country, and greatly hasten the day of specie payments; and there is but little doubt that the greater amount of the bonds and treasury notes constituting the temporary loans, represented above, would be speedily converted, and the Treasury abundantly easy. The bill offered by Mr. Morrill is somewhat defective, in that it confers unnecessary and almost unlimited power upon the Secretary of the Treasury, yet there is little doubt that either that or a similar bill will soon be passed. Secretary McCulloch has proved himself an able financier, and he should have a large discretion, but the country has no guaranty for either the ability, sagacity or honesty of his successor, and so important a bill should be framed with an eye to the future as well as the present. The necessity for the foreign clause, in the bill offered by Mr. Morrill, does not appear to exist, and in the absence of such necessity, the transfer of our National Exchequer to the money centres of the Old World, would be greatly deprecated. Our National credit firmly established and steadily improving, foreign capitalists will seek American Securities as the safest and best investment, without any extra inducement as that mentioned, and this being the case, wherefore include it in the Loan Bill?

The material decline in gold within a few weeks, indicates the extreme sensitiveness of the so called Gold market, and shows that every act of Congress or the Secretary of the Treasury, calculated to place the finances of the Government on a sounder basis, tends to greatly accelerate the narrowing of the margin between gold and the currency. Hence we believe the passage of a Bill, embracing the main features of that offered by Mr. Morrill, from the Ways and Means Committee, will tend to greatly strengthen the position of the Secretary, and hasten the resumption of specie payments, and on these grounds, we advocate its passage."

Cleveland Market.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 13.—Wheat—A better demand to-day for choice grades at an advance; nothing doing in common qualities. Sales 1,200 bush old ambe Michigan a $2,22. Corn—No sales reported. Market nominal at 56@57 for new shelled from store. Oats—Steady. Sales of 2,000 bush from store at 40c. Rye—Dull and nominal. Barley—Inactive and nominal.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

The produce markets were excessively dull and languid to-day, owing partially to the inclement condition of the weather, but mainly to the fact that there is no disposition manifested to operate. The demand for the leading commodities is still restricted to supplying the immediate wants of the retail trade, and we have no round lot operations to report.

GRAIN—Prime Red Wheat is in demand and may be quoted firm at $1,95@2—but little offering. Oats dull but unchanged—small sales from store at 47@48. Barley is dull and very irregular; sale of 2 cars common Spring at 75. Corn is selling from store at 70 to 72. No movement in Rye.

FLOUR—Is dull and neglected, but nominally unchanged—small sales of Family from store at $8¾@9½ for Spring Wheat, and $10¼@10½ for good to choice brands of Winter Wheat. Rye Flour is selling in small lots from store at $6 to $6½ per bbl, and Buckwheat is still quoted at $5 to $5½ per cwt.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quoted steady at 15½ to 16 for Shoulders; 19 to 20 for Clear Ribbed Sides, and 25@26 for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is in good supply and dull but unchanged; small sales of prime city at 19@19½ in tierces. Dressed Hogs may be quoted at 10@11c.

POTATOES—Are moderately active, with regular sales from store at $1,15@1,20 per bush, and $3,50@3,75 per bbl.

APPLES—Steady with a very good local demand, and we continue to report sales of prime to choice at $6½ to $7½ per bbl.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is still quoted at $2,70@2,75 per bush; while Cloverseed is held at $8. No demand whatever for Timothy.

EGGS—The supply is fully up to the demand, and the market is dull, but prices are nominally unchanged.

ASHES—Common Soda Ash is scarce, and a fraction higher—8¾@9. Small sales Refined Soda at 9½, and Pearls at 12.

SALT—May be quoted quiet at $2,80 per bbl, by the car load, and $3 to $3,10 for small lots from store.

SORGHUM—Of good quality may be quoted steady at 80.

HAY—Is selling from scales at $16 to $20 per ton.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

There is no improvement to note in the Petroleum market either as regards demand or prices, and there is scarcely enough doing to establish quotations. In Crude, there was not a single transaction to-day that we could hear of, and we give 24@25, bbls returned, and 29@30 bbls included, as the nominal rates. There seems to be no demand for the article, either for home consumption or shipment, and notwithstanding the supply is light, holders generally are anxious to realize, and concessions would probably made to effect sales. For bonded oil there is not the slightest inquiry, and it is seldom mentioned. Our refiners are asking as much here as buyers are offering to pay for it delivered in Philadelphia, and while this state of affairs continues, there will be no transactions. Free Oil also is dull and neglected—sale of 30 bbls at 74 cts. Naptha and Residuum are both very dull and we have no sales to record.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

Finance and Trade in New York.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—There is improved tone in the Stock Market. The rally of the afternoon of Saturday is steadily maintained, and many roads show further advance. The improvement appears simply a reaction naturally occurring after the late severe decline in railway speculation. The market opened firmly this morning, and was very strong both at open session and Stock Exchange. Cleveland and Pittsburgh and Northwestern were most active; transactions in the former amounting to twelve thousand two hundred shares.

The market was lower at the one o'clock Board, but the decline was more apparent on Western than on New York roads. At the last Board the market gained strength, with moderate business doing.

The following were the closing prices at 4:30 P. M.:

Ohio Certificates, 23½; New York Central 92; Erie, 90½; Reading, 102; Michigan Southern 68½; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 76½; Rock Island, 100; Northwestern, 31½; preferred, 57½; Fort Wayne, 94½.

Money is extremely easy. Large sums are offered at 5 per cent.

Government securities were steady on gold bonds, with light business. There was a strong demand on Seven-Thirties, with further small supply of foreign. State bonds dull, and there is no important changes to notice. The Gold market is firmer, but there is very little activity. It closed at 139¾.

New York Market.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—COTTON—A shade firmer, with rather moderate business doing at 51@52c for middling.

FLOUR—More active, without material change, at $7,70@7,90 for Extra State; $7,70@8,25 for R. H. O.; $8,60@8,75 for trade brands. The market closed quiet.

WHISKY—Rather active, Western $2,26@2,28.

GRAIN—Wheat dull, and prices entirely nominal. Corn dull, and prices without decided change, at 84@86c for unsound, and 89@90c for sound mixed Western in store and delivered, and $1,04 for White Southern. Oats dull and heavy, at 44@45 for unsound Western, and 61@62 for unsound ditto.

GROCERIES—Coffee quiet. Sugar firm; Havana 12¼. Molasses steady; New Orleans $1,15@1,25; Porto Rico 75@80.

PETROLEUM—Dull, at 25c for Crude; Refined in bond 54c.

PROVISIONS—Pork firmer and irregular, $30,62½@31,25 for New Mess, closing at $31,00 cash; $29,75@40,50 for Old Mess, closing at $30,00, regular; $22,50 for Prime, and $23,00 for Prime Mess; also 5,250 barrels New Mess for January, February and March, sellers' and buyers' option, at $29,50@31,00. Beef steady at $16,50@20,00 for New Plain Mess; $11,00@15,00 for Old Plain Mess; $20,00@24,00 for New Extra Mess, and $14,00@17,00 for Old do. Beef hams firmer, at $38,25@39,00 for Western. Lard quiet and firm, at 15½@15¾; 2,450 bbls for January, February and March, sellers' option, at 18½@18½. Butter dull, at 20@33c for Ohio, 25@38c for State. Cheese dull, at 12@18.

New York Cattle Market.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—CATTLE—The opening day was heavy. The sales at Bergen Hill during the week, amounts to upwards of 1,600 head, and those at the lower yards placed butchers beyond the contingency of the market on Monday, consequently there was very little demand, and the 3,000 head which were in at the opening could only be moved with considerable difficulty. The quality of the stock was fair during the forenoon, but trade was very slow, and prices fell off fully 1c per pound, with a prospect of a further decline before the close, as a large number which are on the New Jersey Central Road will be in to-night.

New York Stock and Money Market.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Money quiet and easy; 6 ℘ cent. for sterling. Exchange dull and nominal; 108¾@109. Gold rather easier; opening at 139¾, declining to 139⅝, and closing at 139½. Government stocks a shade firmer.

RIVER NEWS.

RIVER, WEATHER ETC.

We have no change to notice in river matters. With such weather as we had yesterday as a matter of course business at the landing came to a stand still.

Capt. A. McGowin, of the Nora called upon us last evening. He expects to have his boat here in a few days. She is safe at Cernish Island, and has a heavy cargo from Pittsburgh. Capt. McGowin came on the Iron Mountain cars, and left only two boats at Sulphurtown—the Southern Belle and John D. Perry. He thinks the Iron Mountain road ceased yesterday receiving freights for boats at Sulphurtown, as the Southern Belle and Perry expect to come here and load.

The Minnie, we are glad to learn by a dispatch to Commodore Mephan, yesterday, has been raised. She will soon be in as good order as ever.
